Aim High, Work Hard, Be Kind

March 2026

Dear Colleague

Teacher of History

Thank you for requesting details of our vacancy. We appreciate your interest in us and hope you find the details will inspire you to apply by 9am on Wednesday 15th April 2026.

Chenderit school is at an exciting point in its development. We have ambitious plans in place to support the lives and aspirations of our young people. We are also dedicated to the needs of our staff and the importance of managing work load whilst developing excellent practitioners. We are an ambitious school which is challenging itself to be one of the best comprehensive schools in the country. We value professional development and actively support in-class research as well as stimulating pedagogical projects and opportunities outside the classroom.

Chenderit is popular and oversubscribed because of our reputation for excellence and our extremely high standards. It is this dedication to being our very best which has resulted in a calm, purposeful and friendly working environment for all.

I hope you decide to apply for the post and appreciate you may want more information about 'Team Chenderit' before applying. Informal pre-interview visits or phone conversations are always welcomed.
