Welcome

Thank you for your interest in the advertised post at the Royal Greenwich Trust School. We are proud to be a part of the University Schools Trust, a cross-borough multi-academy trust which includes St Paul's Way Trust School and St. Paul's Way Trust Foundation School in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets.

As part of the University Schools Trust, we have strong partnerships with 6 world-leading universities and other key organisations. Together we are working collaboratively to deliver the best outcomes and life chances for our students.

Our staff are our greatest asset and we are working with the UST to develop an exciting people strategy, focused on purposeful practice, bespoke professional development and meaningful staff wellbeing.

The UST provides staff in all its schools with a wide range of accredited courses, training opportunities and networking events to support collaborative practice.

Our website will give you a broader picture of our school including key information and a sense of what our community stands for:

Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow

The University Schools Trust

The University Schools Trust (UST) and our schools provide excellent education, derived from exceptional teaching and learning, for thousands of pupils each year.

UST is a unique partnership of six world-leading universities and five sector-leading bodies who are working together to deliver a shared vision of inclusive, high quality and transformational education delivered by schools which are deeply rooted in the communities they serve.

We take a rigorous approach – educating from nursery to university and beyond – to all aspects of our work. Our teaching practice is effective, our students are academically challenged and we use our resources efficiently. The inspirational staff at UST are our greatest resource, and they are encouraged to innovate, share and continually raise our standards. The UST School of Education, our innovative centre of excellence for school improvement, supports all our teaching and learning. Our university links enable us to co-commission and participate in research to stretch our knowledge of what works and why, and our culture of open collaborative partnership encourages staff to share and learn with other education professionals.

By developing a culture of growth and excellence, the School of Education adds value to our greatest resource – our staff.

For more information about our School of Education please see:

Continual Professional Learning

At RGTS we are committed to ensuring that all staff across the school are given opportunities to develop their practice in order to excel as professionals. This is achieved through a programme of internal and external training with an extensive network of training providers across London, our staff have access to the highest quality of training available.

All teachers at RGTS have access to regular opportunities for training and development, both as individuals and as part of their wider faculty teams. This includes:

- Weekly teaching and learning briefings where colleagues share best practice
- Masterclasses for specific areas of pedagogical development
- Twilight sessions for extended faculty-based training
- Learning labs that allow teachers to conduct peer to peer observations

Staff Benefits and Well-being

RGTS is committed to ensuring that staff are supported and that their wellbeing is considered at school. To that end, strategies to support staff are grouped into four

- Clarity in Systems and Processes - staff are given clear direction and that time can be managed effectively.
- Collaborative Working Culture - staff are able to access peer to peer support and work together to minimise personal workload.
- Recognition and Reward - staff feel valued for their contributions to the school and that staff are encouraged to go the extra mile.
- Meaningful Workload - decisions are mindful of staff workload and efficient working practice.
