Art & Design Teacher

Start date: January 2023

Vacancy hours: Full-time or part-time

Salary: Main Scale + TLR

Closing date: 14 October 2022 by 12:30 PM

Governors are seeking to recruit a qualified teacher preferably with a specialism in primary art & design to teach across KS1 and KS2. The post is also open to teachers with a strong passion for the subject who have the necessary skills and drive.

The successful candidate will be a strong practitioner for teaching and learning, and a strong team player. Candidates must have recent experience of teaching art & design or be an ECT with a specialism in the subject. They will take initiatives where necessary and be driven by the school's mission to increase children's life chances through high quality education. The successful candidate can negotiate a TLR and be part of the school's curriculum leadership team.

Full-time applicants will teach art & design in the afternoons and provide support for core subjects in the morning in a Year group (playing to their strength). Part-time will involve teaching art & design on five afternoons (0.5 FTE).

Bigland Green offers:

- curious children who are eager to learn, and have good support from parents;
- systems to ensure a good work-life balance for all staff members;
- a designated art room with specialist equipment, including a kiln;
- a full-time teaching assistant in every class across the school;
- support from specialist teachers and tutors;
- a modern, spacious building with exceptionally good resources for inside and outside learning, very good transport links;
- strong support for staff CPD, and;
- a highly supportive governing body.

Bigland Green is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will require an enhanced DBS clearance. We are dedicated to equality and valuing diversity.

Potential candidates are welcomed and encouraged to visit the school. Please telephone or email to arrange a visit or an informal conversation with the headteacher.

Job description & Person specifications

Art & Design Teacher for January 2023

Job description

The key duties of the teacher at Bigland Green will be as stipulated in the School Teachers' Pay and Condition Document 2021, with particular attention to paragraphs 50.1 to 52.10. See link <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/school-teachers-pay-and-conditions>

Qualifications

This post is suitable for a qualified teacher with specialism in primary art & design. The school will consider applications from teachers with the right skills set even if they do not have a specialism but have the passion, knowledge, skills and recent experience.

Other qualities

The right candidate will be driven by a moral compass, and be passionate about increasing children's life chances by providing education that helps them to become confident individuals, successful learners and responsible citizens. A good understanding of EYFS and the primary curriculum and effective strategies for high quality learning is essential. The right candidate will be highly aspirational in their approach and thinking, and have a positive impact on others.

If you feel that you can contribute to the school's mission and its Learning Vision as a school teacher, then we would like you to make a strong application.

Bigland Green Primary School's mission is to provide teaching and learning that helps children to become:

- confident individuals who enjoy learning, make progress and achieve;
- successful learners who are able to live safe, healthy and fulfilling lives, and;
- responsible citizens who make a positive contribution to society and the world.

The school has identified six steps to achieving its mission. These six steps to success are encapsulated in the school's Learning Vision. All key stakeholders (pupils, staff, parents, governors & volunteers) strive for the full implementation of the Learning Vision.

Bigland Green is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff/volunteers to share this commitment. All offers of employment are subject to an enhanced disclosure and other checks.
