Who we are

The John of Gaunt School is a unique, vibrant and highly successful school. The school has a strong reputation for both academic and pastoral excellence. Whilst we are first and foremost a place of learning, we strive to ensure that students are academically nurtured and cared for in a safe environment in which they can be happy, grow, gain in confidence and be challenged to achieve in all aspects of school life.

From 1st April 2023 we will be joining Equa Multi Academy Trust. For more information please visit: <https://equa.org.uk/>

Our Mission

- Excellence
- Respect
- Responsibility
- Resilience
- Ambition

Our Values

Our Mission is to make sure that all our students, discover their personal best and thrive academically, individually and socially regardless of their circumstances.

We are relentless in driving high expectations and make no apology for ensuring high standards across the school.

Ethos & Culture

We are a highly inclusive school that blends nurturing individual care with high standards and expectations.

Our ethos is underpinned by strong relationships between students, parents, carers, staff and governors, who all work tirelessly together to ensure students develop their individual characteristics to be successful at school and beyond.

Our School & Community

The John of Gaunt School is a fully comprehensive single Academy for students from the ages of 11 – 18, with approximately 1270 students on roll. We are a school for our community and strongly believe in collaboration. We actively promote this with our local secondary and primary schools through Collaborative Schools Ltd - a social enterprise incorporating all Trowbridge schools. Our strong partnerships with local primaries mean that most students join us already knowing the school and key staff.

Dear Applicant,

Art Teacher – Part time, Permanent

I am delighted that you have shown an interest in this post at The John of Gaunt School which will start in September 2023. The successful applicant will join a committed and talented staff team with a supportive Governing Body who share high ambitions and the desire of excellence for our students. This is a truly exciting time to join our growing, forward-thinking school. We have high expectations of Teaching & Learning and to facilitate this, a framework of high quality practice has been created. These JOG essentials can be found on our website (here).

You will find much information about the school and the faculty both on our website and in this candidate pack, which I hope encourages you to make an application. To apply please complete the application form available on the school's website (link). Please note that in line with safer recruitment practices, CVs will not be accepted. In Section 5 you should provide details of how your skills and experience match the qualities referred to in the person specification. Please return your completed application to Elaine Baldwin, HR Co-ordinator via email to vacancies@jogschool.org.

The closing date for applications is 17th April 2023 at 10am. Interviews will be held during the week of 24th April. If you have not heard from us by 25th April please assume that your application has been unsuccessful on this occasion.

The John of Gaunt School is committed to safeguarding and protecting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. In line with Keeping Children Safe in Education, references will be called prior to interview and an online profile search conducted on all shortlisted candidates. The successful candidate will be expected to complete an enhanced DBS disclosure with children's barred list checks.

Thank you, once again, for your interest in this post. We very much hope that you will pursue your interest in this position and I look forward to reading your application and possibly meeting you at interview.

Yours faithfully,

Matthew Woodville
Headteacher

The Expressive Arts Faculty

It is a very exciting time to be joining The Expressive Arts Faculty at The John of Gaunt School. We are looking to appoint a teacher of art and design, photography or textiles who has the talent and enthusiasm to contribute towards the development of the faculty. You will be joining a team of dedicated teachers, who care passionately about their students and are committed to raising standards and enjoyment in Expressive Arts.

There are currently 7 teachers and 1 technician working within the faculty. There is a strong team spirit in this faculty that helps us to exploit the large areas of crossover between our range of subjects.

We have three art classrooms, one textiles classroom, one photography computer suite and a dedicated photography studio as well as a dedicated sixth form studio.

The school runs a 3-year KS3 and 2-year KS4. The art KS3 curriculum includes 2 hours of art per fortnight covering a range of skills, genres and media. In KS4 GCSE art, photography and textiles are very popular within the school. We currently follow the Eduquas specification. These option subjects are allocated 5 hours a fortnight. At KS5 we currently offer art and design and photography following the Edexcel specification. Students have 9 lessons over the fortnight.

The Expressive Arts Faculty has a thriving extra-curricular programme with a range of art, drama and musical events, activities, trips and performances throughout the academic year. The faculty has strong links with the local community joining workshops and hosting annual art exhibitions at KS3, 4 & 5.

We run art trips to London and Barcelona and the support the rest of the faculty with their Christmas Carol Service, Christmas Celebration Concert as well as the Academy Awards and annual school show. Major productions have been supported by the art department through our set design and construction, along with the design of costumes and make up. The annual show is always a highlight in the faculty extra-curricular calendar!

Our commitment to safeguarding

At The John of Gaunt School we are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of students and expect all staff to share this commitment. A copy of the school's Safeguarding Children in Our School Policy and our Policy and Code of Conduct for Safe Practice are included in this pack for your reference. Further related policies will be included in the induction process. The interview will seek clarification on information you provide on your application form, assess your suitability for the post and assess your suitability to work in an environment where you will have contact with students. It will include questions relating to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.

If you are shortlisted references will be sought from your current or most recent employer and any issues arising from a reference will be discussed at interview. If you have worked with children in the past, but do not do so at the moment, a reference will be sought from this employer as well. If you have been self-employed, please provide statements or evidence from your clients/accountant or solicitor. References will be required which cover the past 5 years.

The application form asks you to give the contact details of a 'personal referee'; this should not be a relative or friend. Please give names and email contacts for all referees. The post will only be offered once two satisfactory references have been received.

In line with Keeping Children Safe in Education requirements an on line profile search will be undertaken for all shortlisted candidates.

Due to the nature of this post, you will be required to apply for an enhanced disclosure with barred list from the DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) if you are offered the post. Disclosure will contain details of formal cautions, reprimands and final warnings, as well as convictions. The school will apply on your behalf and will pay the necessary fee. This post is exempt from the provisions of Section 4(2) of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 by virtue of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 Exceptions Order 1975, 2013 and 2020.

Having a criminal conviction will not automatically exclude you from employment, this will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of the offences committed. However, an offer of employment will be conditional until DBS and medical clearance have been received.

Our Town

The historic woollen town of Trowbridge is the County town of Wiltshire, and situated close to the edge of Salisbury Plain. Trowbridge is a socially diverse and rapidly growing town and offers a range of High Street and independent shops, supermarkets, cafés, pubs and restaurants, as well as a weekly street market featuring local stalls and traders and is only 10 miles by road from Bath. The school is a 5 minute walk from the train station, which provides good rail links to Bath, Bristol and nationally. Trowbridge provides a great base from which to explore the region, including the world famous landmarks such as Stonehenge and Avebury as well as numerous National Trust and English Heritage sites.
