

Aspiring leader of Computer Science
Main Pay Range/Upper Pay Range
Job Progression & Recruitment Incentive
Full time ideally from January 2023

We have an excellent opportunity for the right candidate to join John Hanson Community School as a teacher of Computing but with an expectation that you would become the Head of Faculty within 12-24 months. You would be mentored and supported throughout by our Head of Computing, as well as given high quality middle leadership training. Additionally, there is a recruitment and retention allowance for the right candidate.

John Hanson is a successful 11-16 community school, rated as Good by OFSTED. Our students are friendly and confident, and we strive to ensure that they achieve the success they deserve. John Hanson is where 'Pupils work hard and find the work really challenging', A school where 'there are strong systems in place that support pupils in reaching the highest grades' - Ofsted 2018

Computer Science is taught as a core subject in KS3, and in KS4 continues as an option subject with BTEC Tech award in creative media production as an additional option. The department is very forward thinking and continually looks for courses that are relevant to our students. We currently have over 100 students taking our KS4 courses as an option. The Department is well resourced with 2 dedicated Computer Suites and the latest software installed to support an engaging curriculum for our students.

The successful candidate will have excellent up to date Computing subject knowledge, good organisation and communication skills and embrace school life. They need to be a good team player and able to support the Subject Leader in implementing significant changes to the GCSE Curriculum and assessment. In addition, they must be prepared to teach a variety of different courses across the department including BTEC Media. The successful candidate must have an innovative and engaging approach to lessons to convey the subject to pupils and students, and monitor and assess to ensure the best possible progress.

This is a unique opportunity for a collaborative and motivated individual who wants to take the next step in their teaching career by joining a great teaching team. We welcome informal conversations with the Headteacher, and encourage you to come and visit our school and meet our staff and students. In all circumstances, please contact Karen Page (Business Manager) for further details and an application form, 01264 352546 or email karen.page@jhanson.hants.sch.uk

John Hanson Community School and Hampshire County Council are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
