Required for January 2022

Beverley is an aspirational all age special school for Autistic students in the Middlesbrough and surrounding areas.

Due to the expansion and development of our school's leadership structure we are looking for an inspiring and innovative leader to build on our school's strengths and achievements.

This is an exciting position for a leader looking to make their mark in a well resourced aspirational all age special school for Autistic Young People.

We are looking for someone who has :

- Excellent Leadership skills
- A commitment to realising the potential of every young person
- The ability to coach and mentor others around best practice for Autistic students
- A commitment to continuous curriculum development to improve outcomes for all our learners.

Someone who shares our mission and values to build on the school's current strengths
