1. Headteacher welcome

As Salaamu Alaykum and a very warm welcome to Zaytouna Primary.

We are delighted that you are considering us for the next stage in your career – if you are up for excitement, excellence and #DoingThingsDifferently then we are definitely the place for you.

From our curriculum to our enrichment offer, our approach to professional development to our partnerships with the local community, we are striving for innovation and excellence. We believe that school should develop a child's mind, body and soul. This drives every decision that we make and we are proud that we are able to offer this entitlement to all of our children. It's what we care passionately about. We also know that to fulfil this, we need to ensure that mental and physical health and wellbeing is at our core, for our children and our adults. You will see this reflected in everything that we do.

We are proud to be a school of Islamic distinctiveness – you will see that our QIS offer enriches our children to be the best versions of themselves. It's what makes our school a genuine family community. This together with our comprehensive development of our core British Values means that our children are being well supported to become informed, critical thinkers of the future.

Growth in pupil numbers, internal promotion and an unwavering commitment to becoming a school of excellence means that we are looking for new talented staff to join the Zayteam. This is the perfect time to come and help us to write the next chapter of our adventure as we are now fully immersed in Phase 3 of our school improvement model. Indeed, our Ofsted visit in September 2023 where we were graded GOOD overall with OUTSTANDING for personal development is a testament to the great progress we have made over recent years. We have established some great momentum and have exciting plans for 2024 and beyond.

We know that the most effective practitioners are 'up to something' and care passionately about their area of responsibility, so we are inviting you to help shape your role. Professional dialogue and quality CPD will allow our new members of staff to contribute fully to our continued improved outcomes and provision for our children who deserve the very best.

We are ambitious and unapologetic about what we do at Zaytouna. It's based on what we believe to be important and on the future that we want for our children and for ourselves. We make sure however that we have as much fun as we can along the way!

If you're considering the next step in your career and this sounds like an offer that you'd like to find out more about, then I strongly encourage you to book in for a session to come and meet us, have a tour of school and a further conversation – we'd love to meet you.

Best wishes,

Aaron Bird

2. About Zaytouna Primary School

Zaytouna Primary is a larger than average, over-subscribed inner city Islamic Faith school dedicated to providing an excellent education for all our children in partnership with Transform Trust. Located in a commercial district of the city, we draw most of our children from the inner-city area of Normanton. After a period of significant growth and flourishing, we are now at full capacity and operating a waiting list; our staff team is now stable, too. Parents from a wider area are now choosing us as their first preference because of our vibrant academic offer, our provision for children with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND), as well as our Islamic distinctiveness.

Almost all of our children are from minority ethnic backgrounds and a high proportion speak English as an additional language (EAL). Drawing from areas of significant deprivation, the proportion of disadvantaged children is above the national average and growing. The number of children with SEND, including those with an education, health and care plan (EHCP) is broadly in line with the national average and increasing. Our curriculum is the universal entitlement for all children and allows everyone to grow, develop and flourish - this is something we are extremely proud of.

Underpinned by the fundamental principles of 'Peace, Unity and Equality', we aim throughout our curriculum and ethos to develop the mind, body and soul, with 'Everyone a Learner and Everyone a Leader.'

We have a strong safeguarding culture, serving one of the most deprived areas in Derby City. Children are exposed to domestic violence, high unemployment and criminal activity. High levels of poverty were more apparent during the lockdown periods. We work in partnership with a local charity to provide substantial food hampers on a regular basis and support our families with digital technologies, clothing and translation services.

As an anchor institution in Derby, we work closely with the following organisations:

- Association of Muslim Schools
- Derby Jamia Mosque
- Derby University
- Our Future Derby
- Derbyshire Cricket Club
- Derby Music Partnership
- Progressive Sports
- World Class Schools organisation

Transform Trust and its schools are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This appointment is subject to safer recruitment procedures, including satisfactory references, medical, Enhanced DBS with children's barred list clearance, online and social media checks and completion of relevant safeguarding training including Safeguarding Children in Education

All school roles are classed as regulated activity and as such, it is an offence to apply for this role if you are barred from engaging in regulated activity relevant to children

All new Trust employees will be required to complete an enhanced DBS with children's barred list check which must be in place before they can start in the role.

The position you are applying for gives you privileged access to vulnerable groups therefore, you are required to disclose all spent convictions and cautions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions) Order 1975. This means that you must disclose spent and unspent convictions other than those which are so "protected". The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance on the filtering of "protected" convictions and cautions can be accessed on the Disclosure and Barring Service or the Ministry of Justice websites.

Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ministry-of-justice>.

Please note that Enhanced certificates may include information relating to a protected caution or conviction if the police consider that it is relevant to the workforce that the individual intends to work in.

The Schools policies including Child Protection and Safeguarding are available on their website.
