Assistant Head Teacher with SENDCo

Start Date: September 2024

Closing Date: Monday 13th May, 12noon

Interview Date: week commencing 20th May 2024

Salary Range: Leadership Scale L2-L5

Hours: Full-time, permanent

Christ the King Catholic School are seeking to employ a dedicated and conscientious Assistant Headteacher with SENDCo to join our dedicated, passionate and caring team. This is a permanent, full-time role commencing in September 2024. Our small and friendly school welcomes applications from candidates who are enthusiastic about working in a school where children are at the heart of all we do and our vision is rooted in the Catholic values of respect, resilience, stewardship, curiosity, forgiveness and love.

Skills and experience

Are you passionate about working with pupils at all stages of their primary education, wanting to ensure their learning experiences are both meaningful and fun?

Successful candidates will be:

- A skilled professional who has an engaging and dynamic style of teaching and can support the needs of all learners across a mixed age range.
- Experienced in leadership within a school setting.
- Willing to support the Catholic ethos of the school.
- Driven to make sure all our children achieve their very best, having high expectations of behaviour and achievement.
- Passionate about continuing their own professional development and open to learn and develop as part of a whole school team.
- Eager to support the needs of all learners, particularly those with SEND.
- Prepared to work flexibly as part of a close knit partnership using shared teaching approaches to learning.

What the school offers its staff

We can offer you:

- a supportive and inclusive team of staff who have excellent relationships with each other and the children in our school
- opportunities for professional development, including Nationally accredited qualifications in SEND
- key role in the leadership of the school, working with a committed team of staff with shared values and enthusiasm for school improvement

Assistant Headteacher and SENDCo

- a school whose values are rooted in kindness and care through showing love for one another
- amazing children, with a passion for learning
- a dedicated whole school team who work together to develop professionally and support each other
- continued professional development, including working with the family of schools in the Dunstan Catholic Educational Trust
- a welcoming whole school community of pupils, parents, staff, governors and volunteers
- practically, Christ the King has excellent access situated in the heart of Amesbury, with links to both the A303 and A345: commutes by car from Salisbury or Andover take no more than 20minutes.

Our school is proud to be part of The Dunstan Catholic Educational Trust (DCET), a multi-academy trust of Catholic schools across Clifton Diocese. This valuable partnership allows our school and staff the support and professional development opportunities of working collaboratively across a community of schools, whilst maintaining our own distinct school identity.
