

SIR JOHN NELTHORPE SCHOOL

RESPECT - RESILIENCE - INTEGRITY

ASSISTANT HEADTEACHER (ARR)

Focus Areas: Timetable; Curriculum Modelling & Costing; Learning Pathways/Options, Data, Assessment, Recording & Reporting; Cover

Start Date: Easter 2025 (negotiable up to September 2025 for a suitable candidate)

Salary: Leadership Scale 12-16 (£65,286 - £72,162)

About Us:

Sir John Nelthorpe School is a highly regarded 11-18 co-educational voluntary controlled comprehensive school with a proud history of academic excellence, community engagement, and pupil success. We are committed to nurturing a culture of high expectations, inclusivity, and continuous improvement.

The Role:

This is an exciting opportunity for an ambitious leader to shape and enhance key areas of our school's operations. Reporting directly to the headteacher, the successful candidate will take responsibility for:

- Timetable and Curriculum Modelling: Designing and managing a cohesive timetable and curriculum that meet the needs of all learners, ensuring efficiency and value for money.
- Data, Assessment, Recording, and Reporting: Maintaining the effectiveness of our established systems to support pupil progress and achievement.
- Learning Pathways: Leading the delivery of our key stage 4 options process to support and maximise pupil potential and outcomes.

You will play a pivotal role in ensuring the school's curriculum and assessment frameworks are robust, forward-looking, and align with our vision and values.

What We Are Looking For:

- A commitment to fostering an inclusive and aspirational culture for pupils, students and staff alike.
- Proven middle or senior leadership experience within an educational setting.
- Expertise or an interest in curriculum design, timetable construction, and assessment frameworks.
- A strong track record of delivering measurable improvements in teaching and learning.
- Strategic thinking skills with the ability to manage budgets effectively.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills to inspire and collaborate with colleagues, parents, and the wider community.
