HEADTEACHERS WELCOME

Dear Potential Colleague,

Thank you for expressing an interest in this post.

I am delighted to be writing to you as Headteacher at Woodley School and College. Woodley School and College is a specialist school for autistic learners. Since I joined the school three years ago, we have started a journey of significant change, a journey that continues, including:

- We are in the process of designing our new school building, which we hope to be in within 2 years. At the moment we are going through an exciting stage of planning the various bespoke aspects of the new school in order to meet the specialist needs of our students.
- We have experienced a significant increase in student numbers over the last three years from 130 to 182 students, and this number will increase further.
- To meet the needs of our students we now have a staff cohort of 180, with a very low staff turnover of 10%, indicating a very settled staff.
- We have recently opened two amazing satellite provisions, Blossom (post 16) and Woodley Moor (Y5 to Y8) to accommodate some of our increased numbers.
- We have started to develop new thematic and destination based curriculums to better meet the outcome needs of our students.
- Developing strategies to improve the Quality of Life for students and staff

Our core purpose and values are incredibly important to us and underpin all the hard work we do at Woodley.

We are looking to appoint an assistant headteacher with strategic responsibility for developing the curriculum. The successful candidate will join my Senior Leadership Team (SLT) and work collaboratively with the team to ensure all aspects of the Quality of Education are the best they can be for our students. We are looking for a colleague who demonstrates our values, has significant senior leadership experience and skills, not necessarily from a special school background, and a person who also has the personality that will complement our team.

It is important the successful candidate is excited by the potential to be part of a rapidly developing vibrant and growing school.

Please read the job description and expectations. If you think that you may be the right candidate for this exceptional role, then I look forward to receiving your application.

WE OFFER:

- Authentic leadership support and guidance
- In house accredited training
- Job mentoring and support
- Personalised Continued professional development
- A friendly team and working environment
- A caring environment that values a good work life balance
- Very competitive salary with benefits
- Access to several self referral support packages

If you would like to discuss the role in more detail, then please do not hesitate to contact me at office@woodleyschool.org.uk

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All staff are subject to an enhanced DBS check.

For anyone who has not been to Woodley before, visits to the school are essential, please call 01484 223937 to make an appointment. For more information about our school please visit the website –

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Woodley systems

PBS

Positive behaviour Support (PBS) is an internationally recognised way of improving a person's quality of life. It is rooted in the science of behaviour analysis and uses different methods to gather information to work out what a person's behaviour means. This way support can be improved, and people can learn to use better and less harmful ways of getting their needs met. At Woodley we focus on proactive class-based support which aims to meet the needs of young people. There is a PBS team and the expectation is that all staff have the capacity to understand behaviours of concern and plan meet the needs of individual pupils.

PRICE

PRICE is a values-based system which trains all staff in a variety of strategies for keeping themselves and others safe. When supporting children who are distressed staff may at times need to employ restrictive interventions as a last resort. PRICE training is committed to restraint reduction and this fits with our values at Woodley School. More importantly PRICE training equips staff with primary and secondary strategies using Positive Behaviour Support, placing significant emphasis day to day classroom practice, de-escalation, distraction, diversion.

Therapies

Woodley School and College has various therapy staff we employ directly to work in the school and who you will work closely with. These include:

- Sensory Occupational therapists
- Speech and Language Therapist (Total Communication Team)
- Play therapist
- Art Therapist
- Music Therapists

A number of our school staff are therapy trained in areas such as:

- Block therapy
- Rebound therapy
- Sand therapy
- Intensive interaction therapy

AET

Woodley School and College is Kirklees's trainer for Autism, using Autism Education Trusts programmes.

The AET is a not-for-profit organisation, led by the National Autistic Society and supported by the Department for Education.

Our training programme and education resources are created in partnership with our panel of Autistic Young Experts, parents/carers, and our network of Training Partners, education professionals, experts, and specialists.
