

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Assistant Headteacher for EYFS/KS1

Note: Candidates should ensure that they meet the essential criteria for qualifications and experience and provide supporting evidence.

Qualified teacher status Degree Evidence of training to support leadership development Willingness to participate in other/and or further development and training opportunities Experience Recent Leadership and Management experience in a school Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities Ability to support and develop staff	Professional Qualifications and Training	Essential	Desirable
Evidence of training to support leadership development Willingness to participate in other/and or further development and training opportunities Experience Recent Leadership and Management experience in a school Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Qualified teacher status
Willingness to participate in other/and or further development and training opportunities Experience Recent Leadership and Management experience in a school Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have a comfidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Degree
Experience Recent Leadership and Management experience in a school Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Evidence of training to support leadership development
Recent Leadership and Management experience in a school Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Willingness to participate in other/and or further development and training opportunities
Recent Leadership and Management experience in a school Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective Communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Experience
Experience of line management of staff Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective Communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Recent Leadership and Management experience in a school
Teaching experience across EYFS/KS1 Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Evidence of successful experience of supporting teacher development Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Working with professionals to support children and families Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally	Involvement in school self-evaluation and development planning
Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Working with professionals to support children and families
Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Knowledge and Understanding
Secure knowledge and understanding of the principles of learning through play and early child development Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Understanding of what high-quality teaching and learning is and the ability to model this
Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	A strong understanding of the EYFS and KS1 curriculum and progression from birth
Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	child development
Effective communication and interpersonal skills Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Effective Teacher Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Skills, Abilities and Professional Attributes
Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Effective communication and interpersonal skills
Be able to adapt and manage change Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Effective Teacher
Ability to build effective professional relationships Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	Ability to communicate a vision and inspire others
Build and maintain positive and nurturing relationships with children A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
A commitment to getting the best outcomes for all pupils Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities	·
Have confidence and resilience to have challenging conversations appropriately and professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities professionally Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Have a commitment to inclusion and equal opportunities
Ability to support and develop staff	· · · · · ·
	Ability to support and develop staff

