The Better Prepared the Stronger

Recruiting now – Assistant Headteacher for September 2026

Salary: Leadership Pay Scale L10 to L14 dependent on experience

Hornsey School for Girls is consistently recognised as a high Performing School by National Standards

Pupils enjoy school and are safe. They spoke of the sense of family they get from being in a small school. Relationships between staff and pupils are positive. They reflect respect and kindness, both of which are at the core of this community school's ethos. Ofsted 2022

Right now we are searching for exceptional talent and offering opportunities to be part of something unique.

We have high ambitions for our staff as well as our students. As you will be investing in our young people, we will invest in you.

As well as financial incentives, your career pathway will be developed with you and will include:

- Progression opportunities both internally and externally through our bespoke CPE programme
- Bespoke and individualised programme for ECTs
- Innovative professional development through our stranded CPE programme for all staffing levels

In addition to this:

- The school outcomes are considerably above average and have been for a number of years
- The role has some capacity for movement and development

Come and realise your ambitions at Hornsey School for Girls.
