About the role

Who are we looking for?

You are warmly invited to apply for the post of Assistant Headteacher and Teacher of Science within the King Edward VI Academy Trust Birmingham based at King Edward VI Balaam Wood Academy. This is an exciting and unique opportunity to make a real contribution to an improving academy which will see you work with and add capacity to a committed Senior Leadership Team.

As a senior leader, you will collaborate with and support the Deputy Headteacher with responsibility for Quality of Education in ensuring the effective leadership of teaching and learning across the whole school. Exact responsibilities will be open to negotiation with the successful candidate taking account of the individual's expertise, experience, interests and the needs of the academy. The ideal candidate will be an enthusiastic, passionate and inspiring leader who may already have previous leadership experience and is keen to move into the next stage of their career in leadership.

As a Teacher of Science, you will be committed to further developing the delivery of Science within the academy. You will be an exceptional classroom practitioner with outstanding subject knowledge who can motivate pupils to achieve to their full potential and develop a love of Science. As part of your leadership post and responsibilities, this post would also include working collaboratively with the Head of Science in improving, leading and managing the effective delivery of our Science curriculum to ensure the highest levels of pupil progress and attainment in line with pupil progress responsibilities. The preferred candidate would have a specialism in either Physics or Chemistry.

Who will you be joining?

King Edward VI Balaam Wood Academy is located in South West Birmingham. The academy is rapidly improving and continuing to benefit from having joined King Edward VI Academy Trust Birmingham which has led to investment across the academy, including the availability of cutting-edge technology in each classroom. King Edward VI Balaam Wood Academy is proud to be part of The Schools of King Edward VI Birmingham which supports its schools, faculties/departments and individual staff to work collaboratively. The successful candidate will benefit from a wide range of professional development opportunities encompassing the potential to experience schools across the Foundation and to pursue professional qualifications. There will be opportunities to collaborate with other schools and to benefit from their expertise and resources.

Our expectations and aspirations

King Edward VI Balaam Wood Academy has the highest aspirations and expectations for all members of its community. As a member of staff, you will be valued, challenged and supported in making a difference to the lives of our young people. We expect the same of our pupils. We demand courtesy, endeavour and resilience from all of our pupils and the support of their parents and carers.

We are exceptionally proud of our academy and our young people and would encourage interested applicants to come and spend some time with the leadership team to understand our shared vision, have a look around and experience what life is like as part of our community.

About our Academy Trust

The King Edward VI Foundation, Birmingham, is a progressive charitable organisation which has supported excellence in education across the City since 1552. Our schools are diverse in nature but have a common purpose and commitment to achieving our mission of “making Birmingham the best place to be educated in the UK”.

Our Academy Trust currently consists of two independent schools, six selective, and five non-selective academies. Our recent expansion into a wider diversity of local communities is enabling us to accelerate our strategies for improving the life chances of young people in Birmingham, whatever their background.

The King Edward VI Academy Trust Birmingham (“the Academy Trust”) was established in 2017 and is made up of the academies outlined above. The academies receive back office central support services including governance, from the Foundation Office (a central support services function), with several staff being seconded from the Foundation to deliver support services to the Academy Trust and the academies themselves.

Our highly focused five-year strategy aims to build on our existing strengths and heritage and deliver our ambitious growth strategy which aims to bring in a further five academies over the next five years.
