

Assistant Headteacher – SENDCO & Inclusion, City Academy Norwich

Competitive remuneration package

This is key role in supporting the educational provision for this community and impact the life chances of young people in Norwich and the surrounding area. Our Academy serves just over 600 students aged 11 – 16, many of whom come from disadvantaged backgrounds. We are committed to ensuring the very best provision so that all students are aspirational and maximise their potential.

For the past for four years the Academy has been supported by the Bohunt Education Trust and standards have risen significantly. In September 2022, the Academy is joining Sapientia Education Trust.

As Assistant Headteacher, you will support the Headteacher in leading on further improvement, raise aspirations, expectations, and standards focussing on all aspects of SEND and Inclusion. Transforming performance requires more than just one leader. You will be able support with a range of operational areas and access trust-wide professional learning and networks. No student will be left behind, whatever their background.

To be successful in this senior leadership post, you will be driven, ambitious and have young people at the core of your education philosophy. You will need a track record in SEND and Inclusion.

Are you a qualified SENDCO?

Do you have a proven track record in improving and leading on SEND& Inclusion?

Can you demonstrate evidence of significant impact in your current role?

Do you have what it takes to drive and deliver a world class education for our pupils?
