COLLEGE

13-18 Comprehensive: 1,000 students, 250 in Sixth Form

I have been unbelievably impressed and grateful for the pastoral support for my daughter. The past few years have been very challenging for lots of children and anxiety levels have increased. The school have simply been brilliant in my opinion. – Parent survey

Students' behaviour is exemplary. They respect their staff and their peers. This makes for a mature and harmonious learning environment. - Ofsted

ASSISTANT HEADTEACHER: WELLBEING (L 11 - 15)

From September 2023

Freman College is a successful, over-subscribed comprehensive upper school, committed to offering an outstanding education to all its students.

This is an excellent opportunity for an enthusiastic and ambitious individual with a strong track record in middle or senior leadership. The successful candidate will be joining a leadership team of seven and will play a significant role, with colleagues, in shaping the college's future. In particular, they will be responsible for student safeguarding and wellbeing.

They must have

- Successful experience in pastoral care, safeguarding and raising student achievement
- An excellent knowledge and understanding of the latest developments in secondary education
- A passion for comprehensive education
- An outstanding ability to inspire and motivate colleagues and students.

Telephone, e-mail or visit the website for further details.

If you would like to discuss the post or arrange a visit, please telephone to speak with Helen Loughran, the Headteacher.

Closing date: Monday 30th January 2023

Freman College is an equal opportunities employer. The college has a commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will be required to undertake child protection screening including checks with past employers and an Enhanced Disclosure via the Disclosure and Barring Service.
