Required for September 2024 Full Time L12-16

If you have an unrelenting determination to provide an exceptional educational experience for all students and relish the prospect of being an influential senior leader, then you should apply for this post.

Why Latimer?

"Pupils are happy to attend this school. The school's values include honesty, excellence, ambition, respect and teamwork. The school's culture is rooted in these values. There are positive relationships between staff and pupils. Staff have high expectations, and pupils live up to these".

"Staff are proud to work at the school. They feel well supported by leaders in respect of workload, well-being and managing pupils' behaviour. Staff value the professional development they receive".

This is a fantastic school to work in: as a result of our success and popularity we are over-subscribed and have a very strong local reputation. On interview we ask candidates for their impressions and without fail they comment on how wonderful our students are, the supportive team ethos amongst staff and how friendly the welcome is.

We genuinely care about our staff, their well-being and their professional development: we are a happy team, committed to working collaboratively and sharing the very best practice.

We are passionate about continually striving for excellence, and need leaders with the ambition, skills and determination to deliver this.
