

Assistant Principal - Inclusion (non-class based but with some teaching commitment)

L5 - 9

Required from September 2024

Permanent

Are you an optimistic, enthusiastic SENDCO looking for a role within a very supportive, forward thinking MAT?

In a landscape of increasing numbers of children with complex needs within mainstream schools, we are looking for an Assistant Principal (Inclusion) who is forward thinking, positive and innovative. You will have a passion for inclusive practice, coupled with personal qualities of warmth, empathy and kindness.

This is a non-class based role with responsibility for overseeing all aspects of Inclusion such as provision for children with additional needs including; SEND, EAL, Pupil Premium and Children in Care.

Working as part of The Elliot Foundation Academies Trust (TEFAT), you will have access to support and coaching from the West Midlands SEND Regional Lead who knows our school well. Trust Directors are also supportive and solution focussed. You will have regular opportunities to work with colleagues across the West Midlands as well as colleagues nationally. You will be able to attend regional and national meetings and be inspired to learn something new.
