Amadeus Primary Academies Trust are seeking to appoint an Assistant Principal at St Paulinus CE Primary School. This is an exciting role for a leader who relishes a challenge, wants to change lives and can convincingly demonstrate that they have:

- strategic focus and vision and an absolute focus on raising educational standards
- an outstanding teacher
- an experienced practitioner with evidence of impact for all pupils in a core subject and / or across a phase
- a commitment to high educational standards and expectations of young people
- a consistent drive to improve on the quality of teaching and learning
- sets high expectations for self and others and the ability to create, lead and develop high performing teams
- a track record of raising standards and attainment and your personal qualities will align with the ethos and values of the Trust
- the skills to set the strategy and direction of the Academy

At St Paulinus CE Primary School a unique opportunity has arisen for an outstanding candidate with a proven track record of success to play a key strategic role in shaping and delivering on the next stage of the Academy's journey.

St Paulinus is an over-subscribed and high achieving school which offers a stimulating learning environment, children who are keen to learn and supportive parents, staff and Governors. We are blessed with large school grounds that include a beautiful forest, which provides an outdoor space that is rich in learning opportunities.

We are a small team who work very well together ensuring everyone plays a part in promoting whole school progress. We need an Assistant Principal who has the best interests of all our children at heart and is able to work alongside other staff members to develop children's confidence and independence (academically, socially, emotionally and spiritually). As part of Amadeus Primary Academies Trust, we offer and welcome opportunities for staff to share best practice across our six schools. Our ethos of 'limitless learning together' applies to all members of our school community.

Amadeus Primary Academies Trust is a Multi-Academy Church of England Trust established in September 2015, it is made up of six likeminded, successful Primary Schools working together to build on their shared outstanding practice and support each other in the common goal of improving teaching and learning. The Trust is committed to high quality education in a primary context providing continuous school improvement through collaboration, common vision, shared values, collective responsibility and effective accountability.

This is an exciting time in our development as we continue to work hard to drive improvement in our academies. Through strong and purposeful leadership and high-quality teaching and learning, we are confident that we can have a positive impact upon the lives of young people, ensuring that all pupils achieve their potential, realise their aspirations; and are well prepared for the next stage of their lives.
