

Associate Assistant Headteacher – Maths

Candidate Pack

Inclusion is at the heart of our trust

Introduction to Our Trust

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in this post at Oak Learning Partnership.

Our trust is cross phase and consists of primary, alternative provision, special, and secondary schools. We have a vision to transform lives through a highly inclusive approach. 'Inclusion is at the heart of our trust'. Which means we are compassionately rigorous and support all of our pupils to reach their full potential, have unconditional positive regard, leave no one behind and everyone is welcome.

Our schools work closely with one another; they collaborate with purpose, support each other and share collective systems across both educational and business provisions. But it's also important to us that each school has their own identity and individuality. We focus on impact, always making sure common sense is at the heart of our decision making, ensuring clarity and consistency from our leaders.

Our people matter; we understand that we can only achieve our vision by recruiting the right people and providing them with the support, training and time they need to allow them to flourish and be the best that they can be.

Whatever role an individual undertakes within our organisation, they are contributing to our collective aim of transforming lives. We invest heavily in our people ensuring they feel valued, and their well-being is always considered. We understand that if staff feel valued and if the impact they are having is recognised, they can perform at their best.

About this role

We are seeking to appoint a well-qualified, inspiring, and compassionate Associate Assistant Headteacher at Ash Grove School.

You will be an outstanding classroom practitioner who is dedicated to raising high standards for our pupils. As an Associate Assistant Headteacher at Ash Grove, you will lead within one of our personalised curriculum pathways alongside leading Mathematics across the school curriculum.

We are laying strong foundations for growth and have a clear vision for the trust. This role is a key part of our growth strategy and could be an excellent opportunity for the right candidate ready for their next step. We are a values driven organisation, are highly ambitious, passionate about doing things with integrity whilst maintaining a good sense of humour.

If you want to make a difference to young people and join a trust at an exciting part of its journey, we would love to hear from you.

We ask that you do not send CV's, please complete and send your application form to hr@oaklp.co.uk

For any inquiries about the role, please contact the trust central team on 0161 553 0030 or email HR directly using the email provided above.

Leadership Posts:

Post holders are also responsible to the Headteacher for ensuring the general good order and discipline and in the implementation of all policies. All staff are expected to have a clear understanding of the vision, aims and ethos of the school and an awareness of its role in the community. It is essential that the academic and pastoral frameworks of the school are seen as interrelated.

Section (A) Generic to all Leadership Team:

This section is based on the National Standards for Headteachers. These standards include four 'Excellence As Standard' domains: 1. Qualities and knowledge; 2. Students and staff; 3. Systems and processes; 4. The self-improving school system.

Qualities and Knowledge

1. Hold and articulate clear values and moral purpose, focused on providing a world class education for the students they serve.

2. Demonstrate optimistic personal behaviour, positive relationships and attitudes towards their students and staff, and towards parents, governors and members of the local community.

3. Lead by example - with integrity, creativity, resilience, and clarity - drawing on their own scholarship, expertise and skills, and that of those around them.

4. Sustain wide, current knowledge and understanding of education and school systems locally, nationally and globally, and pursue continuous professional development.

5. Work with political and financial astuteness, within a clear set of principles centred on the School's vision, ably translating local and national policy into the school's context.

6. Communicate compellingly the School's vision and drive the strategic leadership, empowering all students and staff to excel.

Students and Staff

1. Demand ambitious standards for all students, overcoming disadvantage and advancing equality, instilling a strong sense of accountability in staff for the impact of their work on students' outcomes.

2. Secure excellent teaching through an analytical understanding of how students learn and of the core features of successful classroom practice and curriculum design, leading to rich curriculum opportunities and students' well-being.

3. Establish an educational culture of 'open classrooms' as a basis for sharing best practice within and between schools, drawing on and conducting relevant research and robust data analysis.

4. Create an ethos within which all staff are motivated and supported to develop their own skills and subject knowledge, and to support each other.

5. Identify emerging talents, coaching current and aspiring leaders in a climate where excellence is the standard, leading to clear succession planning.

6. Hold all staff to account for their professional conduct and practice.

System and processes

1. Ensure that the School's systems, organisation and processes are well considered, efficient and fit for purpose, upholding the principles of transparency, integrity and probity.

2. Provide a safe, calm and well-ordered environment for all students and staff, focused on safeguarding students and developing their exemplary behaviour in school and in the wider society.

3. Establish rigorous, fair and transparent systems and measures for managing the performance of all staff, addressing any under-performance, supporting staff to improve and valuing excellent practice.

4. Welcome strong governance and actively support the governing board to understand its role and deliver its functions effectively – in particular its functions to set school strategy and hold the headteacher to account for student, staff and financial performance.

5. Exercise strategic, curriculum-led financial planning to ensure the equitable deployment of budgets and resources, in the best interests of students' achievements and the School's sustainability.

6. Distribute leadership throughout the organisation, forging teams of colleagues who have distinct roles and responsibilities and hold each other to account for their decision making.

The self-improving school system

1. Create an outward-facing school which works with other schools and organisations - in a climate of mutual challenge - to champion best practice and secure excellent achievements for all students.

2. Develop effective relationships with fellow professionals and colleagues in other public services to improve academic and social outcomes for all students.

3. Challenge educational orthodoxies in the best interests of achieving excellence, harnessing the findings of well evidenced research to frame self-regulating and self-improving schools.

4. Shape the current and future quality of the teaching profession through high quality training and sustained professional development for all staff.

5. Model entrepreneurial and innovative approaches to school improvement, leadership and governance, confident of the vital contribution of internal and external accountability.

6. Inspire and influence others - within and beyond schools - to believe in the fundamental importance of education in young people's lives and to promote the value of education.

"I really enjoy working with the Oak Learning Partnership. I feel supported in my role and I am valued and encouraged to reach my full potential by leaders who believe in me. I have a wealth of support that I can access from the central and executive leadership team and their values are evident in raising outcomes for children whilst empowering staff to make, and be, the difference."
