

ASSOCIATE HEADTEACHER WITH RESPONSIBILITY FOR SEND

Salary L10-14 Inner London Rate

Barham Primary School is seeking to appoint a highly motivated, enthusiastic and divergent thinking Associate Headteacher with responsibility for Special Educational Needs and Disabilities to join our Senior Leadership Team.

We are looking for someone who can demonstrate they share our passion for improving outcomes for some of our most vulnerable children and who is committed to developing their own skills to become a highly effective SEND Leader. We believe this is a career-enhancing role for a professional who will be given the time, support and encouragement to lead on this important area of our school's provision.

The post of SEND Leader is a key role for us. As our new colleague, you will lead on the continued development of all aspects of inclusion/SEND and help to rapidly raise standards of student attainment and achievement across the school, preparing all of our children for adulthood. Importantly, you will lead and develop our team of Learning Assistants so that they are effectively deployed in every lesson.

You will be a member of the school's Senior Leadership Team and will further develop your leadership skills by having the opportunity to develop across our leadership areas - Improving Teaching and Learning, Improving Curriculum and Assessment, Improving Achievement and Standards and Improving Engagement and Safety at different points of the school year.

The successful candidate will join a team of highly skilled and dedicated support staff and benefit from a well-planned CPD programme, which will include:

- An induction programme
- The achievement of the National Award in Special Educational Needs Coordination (if not already achieved)
- A place on an NPQML or NPQSL course as appropriate
- Attendance at SEN seminars and briefings as appropriate
- Attendance at our weekly Leadership Strategy meetings
- Joining a team of highly skilled and dedicated support staff

Visits to the school are welcomed Please call the Dot D'Souza 020 8902 3706 to arrange your visit.

Closing date: 8am on Monday 23rd May 2022 Interviews: Shortlisted candidates will be contacted
