King James is a new dynamic through school born out of a merger between two middle schools and an upper school. We educate pupils from Years 5 to 11 and believe that every individual in our community is important and needs to achieve their full potential.

We are further developing our pastoral and inclusion provision at King James Academy. We are committed to the support of the social, emotional and behavioural needs of our students and as a result we are pleased to be recruiting for new roles to enhance our school offer in these areas. In addition, we are excited to be opening a new designated wellbeing centre at King James Academy for September 2022. The aim of this centre is to offer support to students who are struggling within the mainstream setting in order to help them back into full time education. The behavioural and wellbeing support roles will work closely together to ensure the needs of all our students are understood and met.

We are looking for a Behaviour Support Coordinator with high aspirations and expectations for our students. They will play a pivotal role in ensuring our students have positive learning experiences by working closely with those who present challenging behaviours. The ideal candidate will be hardworking, focussed on improvement and have an unconditional positive regard for all young people. They will be responsible for the day to day management and organisation of the school's Behaviour Provisions and supporting systems.

We are dedicated to high quality professional development and there are opportunities for further progression within the Diamond Learning Partnership Trust. At King James Academy Royston, you can expect a supportive culture within a Trust with very high aspirations. We value our staff and there are many development opportunities within the Partnership.
