An ambitious and inclusive Trust of schools strengthening our communities through excellent education.

Welcome from the Ted Wragg Trust
CEO, Moira Marder

On behalf of the Ted Wragg Trust, I would like to thank you for your interest in working with us. The Ted Wragg Trust (TWT) is an ambitious and inclusive Trust of schools strengthening our communities through excellent education. Our values driven, rapidly growing 2-18 Trust has the highest expectations for every child, every day, with social justice at our core.

This is a hugely exciting time for us as a growing Trust who work closely with other local schools and Trusts across Devon.

We demonstrate our love through our values

How we will succeed

Queen Elizabeth's School

Letter from the Headteacher

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in this post at Queen Elizabeth's School. The school currently has 1250 students on roll of whom 130 are in the Sixth Form. The majority of our students are drawn from our partner primary schools across mid Devon and the greater Exeter area.

Founded in the 16th century, the school is set in the market town of Crediton, just 7 miles from Exeter. We are an ambitious school dedicated to providing an excellent education that develops knowledge, character, contribution and wisdom. Our Year 7 and 8 students are taught on our Barnfield campus and Years 9-13 at Western Road.

At Queen Elizabeth's our coaching programme supports all colleagues to continuously improve their classroom and leadership practice. We were delighted to be judged as Good in the most recent Ofsted report in May 2022, which recognised our high-quality curriculum and continued improvement in achieving positive outcomes for all students. Through high quality teaching and a broad range of extra-curricular activities we aim to instil our students with the values of respect, reflection and resilience.

The enclosed recruitment pack outlines the key duties and accountabilities of the post. The successful applicant will:

- have a clear, well communicated understanding of the most effective teaching and learning techniques that lead to strong student progress
- possess the skills and determination to make a positive difference to the lives of our students
- be relentless in encouraging all students to build their knowledge and actively contribute to school life within our community so that they develop a sense of pride and belonging

If you have any questions, please contact Anna Field on 01363 773822 or anna.field@qe.devon.sch.uk

Yours sincerely

Paula Smith - Headteacher

Queen Elizabeth's School

Job Description

Key Purpose of Job

To oversee and operate a Behaviour room, enabling students, including some of our most vulnerable, to access learning and supporting them to be 'Ready to Learn'. This role contributes significantly to the culture of achievement, ambition and learning for all within the school.

Whilst the core function of the role is to support students, liaise with parents and administer the functioning of a Timeout classroom the post-holder will be a full member of the wider Student Support Team. This will include supporting the implementation of the school's behaviour for learning policy, through day to day pastoral care and the effective management of student behaviour.

List Key Duties and accountabilities of the post

- To be responsible for the day to day operation and supervision of the Timeout room(s) including supporting and enabling students to access the curriculum through:
 - Creating and maintaining a purposeful, orderly and supportive environment in the reset room.
 - Using strategies, in liaison with other staff, to support students to achieve learning goals.
 - Providing and enabling instruction/learning in the Timeout room through varied activities and reviewing these on a regular basis to ensure student progress is enabled whilst in Reset.
 - Preparing materials and liaising with appropriate staff to enable effective feedback and continuity of learning in lessons missed.
 - Promoting good student behaviour, dealing promptly with conflict and incidents in line with school policy and encouraging students to take responsibility for their own behaviour.
 - Liaising with parents and ensuring correspondence is timely and effective between the school and home with regard to behavioural matters, sanctions, welfare or pastoral concerns.
 - Working flexibly to meet the needs of the department/students.
 - Being part of the first response rota, including first aid, when Timeout duties permit.
 - Supervising and providing support for students, including those with additional needs, ensuring their safety and access to learning activities whilst in the Timeout room
 - Quickly establishing constructive relationships with students and interacting with them according to need.
 - Monitoring student progress regularly and ensuring intervention is made to enable them to work effectively.
 - Promoting the inclusion and acceptance of all students as part of daily work.
 - Setting high expectations and promoting self-esteem and independence.
 - Providing feedback to students in relation to progress and achievement at regular intervals.
 - Liaising with staff to identify students to participate in alternative programmes.
 - Implementing learning programmes in line with the current Learning Area programmes of study, and adjusting activities according to student needs.
 - Preparing, maintaining and using equipment/resources required to meet the learning plans/relevant activity and assisting students in their use.
 - Supervising after school detentions.
- To support the implementation of the School's behaviour policy by:
 - Being aware of and complying with policies and procedures relating to Behaviour Policy, Child Protection, Health, Safety and Security, Confidentiality and Data Protection, and reporting all concerns to an appropriate person.
 - Ensuring accurate and up to date records are kept and communicated to staff to enable analysis of data, and advising colleagues of any trends/patterns which will require wider policy responses.
 - Contributing to the overall ethos/work/aims of the school.
 - Appreciating and supporting the role of other professionals.
 - Attending relevant meetings, as required.

Queen Elizabeth's School

- Assisting with the supervision of students out of lesson times, including before and after school and at lunchtimes, as required.
- Ensuring timely communication with parents and colleagues in order to ensure the consistent application of the policy.
- Facilitating restorative conversations between students and staff.
- Undertake the collection of student statements.
- Collect students for detentions and interventions.
- To liaise with teaching staff and ensure there is a variety of work programmes for students so that there is continuity of learning in the Timeout room
- To implement work programmes and one-to-one support to ensure continuity of learning.
- To manage communication with parents and carers through the use of text messages, phone, email and written formats for all aspects of the School's behaviour policy.
- To undertake general clerical/administrative support, including the Timeout room procedures, detentions, fixed term exclusion reporting in accordance with the school's statutory requirements and communications with parents.
- To maintain and provide accurate data regarding the Timeout room and detentions.
- To be a highly visible role model developing positive professional relationships with students.

Development

- To undertake training as required.

Typical working pattern

- Typically, 8.30am–3.30 pm, Monday to Friday during term time with a half an hour unpaid break.
- This working pattern is subject to change and you will be required to work flexibly with colleagues to ensure the operational needs of the school are met.

Other Duties

- To maintain a First Aid qualification.
- To support the achievement of the school's objectives by working proactively with colleagues on activities outside direct area of responsibility as required.
- To carry a school radio and mobile phone, if provided, responding to communications promptly.
- To report any potential Health and Safety issues promptly.
- To follow the school's ICT policy for safe use of ICT.
- To be aware of and assume the appropriate level of responsibility for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and to report any concerns in accordance with the school's safeguarding policies
- To comply with legislation, policies and procedures relating to confidentiality and data protection, reporting any concerns to the appropriate person.
- To work in compliance with the Codes of Conduct, Regulations and policies of the school and its commitment to equal opportunities.
- To comply with the school's Health & Safety policy, procedures and statutory requirements.
