- Be enthusiastic, energetic and open to innovation;
- Possess effective communication skills and be emotionally intelligent;
- Possess effective ICT skills and be open to new uses of technology in the workplace;
- Be committed to co-curricular activities including lunch time activities;
- Be committed to continuing professional learning;
- Have integrity, optimism and a good sense of humour;
- Hold a good honours degree along with qualified teacher status;
- Have some leadership experience;

In return, we offer:

- A happy community committed to the professional development of all colleagues;
- A distinctive local context ensuring we place inclusivity at the heart of all we do;
- A skilled and experienced team of teachers and other professionals;
- A motivated leadership team leading rapid improvement to the students' life chances;
- A school in which the students are enthusiastic, engaging and thoughtful.

We would be pleased to welcome you for an informal visit prior to application.

We are committed to safeguarding the young people in our care and we expect all our staff to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS check.

As an employee of the Aquinas Church of England Education Trust you are required to have regard to the character of the Trust and its foundation and to undertake not to do anything in any way contrary to the interests of the foundation.

The job itself:

To be an excellent teacher of Business (must have taught Business up to KS5). To support the development of teaching and learning across the whole school, with specific responsibility for modelling and coaching excellent teaching within the Business Faculty (to include Business, Economics, Computer Science and PE departments).

This will secure:

- High quality teaching and learning
- Excellent outcomes for pupils through excellent provisions
- High quality continuous professional development for the teaching staff

In addition to the responsibility of classroom teacher key accountability for the Faculty Leader include:

TEACHING AND LEARNING

- Ensuring that statutory requirements of the national curriculum are met across all subjects in the faculty.
- Ensuring that all examination criteria are met.
- Ensuring that programmes of study which match provision to student needs are planned, implemented, reviewed and revised.

- Promoting highest quality of learning and teaching.
- Ensuring standards of literacy are monitored and supported throughout the school.
- Taking every opportunity to create cohesion across the faculty subjects to develop students' wider context knowledge.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

- Allocating students to teaching groups, monitoring students' progress especially via regular assessment and taking such action which may be necessary.
- Planning appropriate intervention strategies for students to raise achievement.
- Promoting highest attainments in public examinations.
- Analysing assessments and examination results, comparing them with school norms, benchmark norms and national statistics.

STAFF EFFECTIVENESS

- Appraising staff performance across all subjects in the faculty.
- Advising as to priorities for continuous professional development ensuring members of staff keep abreast of recent developments in the subject.
- Promoting the training of current, trainee and beginner teachers.
- Providing creative and visionary leadership to build an effective faculty team.
- Supporting non-specialists with appropriate training and development opportunities.

POLICY AND PLANNING

- Working to a Faculty Improvement Plan which takes account of the school's plans and priorities.
- Dealing effectively with all routine faculty organisation and administrative matters.
- Liaising with other Faculty and Subject Leaders, as well as outside agencies.
- Working productively and co-operatively with the line manager.

FINANCE AND RESOURCES

- Managing individual departmental capitation in line with the Faculty plan and good value for money.
- Deploying resources effectively and equitably.
- Ensuring that the working environment is safe, suitable, attractive and well cared for.

ROLE OF THE FORM TUTOR

- Monitor absences, lateness and uniform and maintain accurate details of attendance in accordance with school policy.
- Monitor student planners on a regular basis.
- Ensure that tutorial programmes are planned, recorded and are in accordance with the programme of study provided by the Learning Director.
- Complete individual reports for parents and maintain regular contact.
- Promote students' achievements using praise and rewards effectively in line with school policy.
- Maintain effective communication with students and their parents, and with subject teachers, Learning Directors, Assistant Head, and senior staff as necessary.
- Assist Learning Directors and Assistant Head in the organization of year activities and events.
- Ensure that students new to the school are properly inducted.

APPRAISAL AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Faculty Leader will be part of the school's appraisal scheme. S/he will have a Performance Manager who will set agreed targets for the year. The Performance Manager will monitor and review performance, including classroom teaching. The school will support the continuing professional development of all staff, to ensure that their expertise is being kept up to date.

At Bishop Justus School staff are expected to work in line with the school's Ethos.

Responsibilities are likely to change over time and you will be expected to perform duties of a similar nature such as the Headteacher may reasonably require.
