Reporting to the Trust Estates, Facilities and IT Infrastructure Lead.

An exciting opportunity has arisen to appoint a Caretaking and Maintenance Site Assistant to an experienced team at Lacon Childe School. The site services team has responsibility for the buildings, grounds, site security as well as health and safety of all personnel on site and all operational matters.

The School is looking for a hardworking, enthusiastic and well organised individual to join our Trust Estates and Facilities Team.

This post will require excellent communication, extensive maintenance experience, organisational and IT skills. Experience of working in an organisational maintenance position and having health and safety knowledge and understanding is essential. Experience in schools and a qualification in NPTC in land based machinery or equivalent would be beneficial as would a qualification in basic plumbing or electrical site maintenance but not essential.

For further information and to obtain an application form and full job description, please see our website www.lacon-childe.org.uk or contact Mrs Viv Hulme, Trust Estates, Facilities and IT Infrastructure Lead by email viv.hulme@laconchildeschool.co.uk. Completed
