Thank you for your interest in joining Marine Academy Plymouth and Primary. At Marine Academy Plymouth, we are driven by a clear and ambitious belief: every student who joins us has the potential to succeed and thrive. We are committed to providing a high-quality education that combines academic rigour with a supportive and joyful learning experience. Central to achieving this ambition is a strong and efficient operational team that enables teaching and learning to flourish.

We are seeking a highly organised, proactive and detail-focused Catering Assistant Supervisor to join our professional kitchen team. This role is key to supporting the smooth day-to-day operation of the school catering provision and ensuring that high standards of food quality, hygiene and service are consistently maintained.

As Catering Assistant Supervisor, you will support the Catering Manager in overseeing the daily running of the kitchen, including the preparation, cooking and serving of meals in line with School Food Standards and Trust policies. You will assist in supervising catering staff, allocating duties, and ensuring that service runs efficiently during busy lunch periods.

The successful candidate will work closely with kitchen colleagues, teaching staff and students to ensure a positive dining experience for all. You will be expected to lead by example, demonstrate strong organisational skills, and contribute to a supportive and collaborative team environment. A commitment to safeguarding, teamwork and maintaining a safe and welcoming environment for children and young people is essential.

Marine Academy Plymouth and Primary values professionalism, teamwork and high standards. The Catering Assistant Supervisor plays a vital role in supporting students' wellbeing through the provision of nutritious, high-quality meals. You will be part of a collaborative and supportive team, contributing to a positive working culture and the wider aims of the Ted Wragg Multi Academy Trust. We place a strong emphasis on staff wellbeing and professional development and are proud to be part of a values-driven and rapidly growing Trust with a relentless focus on transforming lives through learning.

Benefits of working at Marine Academy Plymouth and Primary include:

- A supportive and collaborative working environment
- Access to high-quality professional development and training
- Clear systems and processes supported by Trust-wide expertise
- Opportunities to work as part of a strong and values-led Multi Academy Trust
