Practical Teaching Assessment

As part of our interview process we aim, where possible and where applicable, to observe you teaching in your current school, with the agreement and support of your school's leadership. This allows us to see you in a familiar environment and gain an authentic understanding of your teaching practice.

If a visit to your school cannot be arranged, or if you do not consent to this, we will dedicate a significant portion of your interview to a practical teaching assessment within our own school setting, ensuring you still have the opportunity to demonstrate your skills in the classroom.

We believe some of the benefits of observing you teach in your current school include:

- Seeing you teach in your natural environment, using familiar resources and routines.
- It demonstrates how you manage your classroom, differentiate instruction, and engage students who you are familiar with, and students who are familiar with you.
- Teachers often perform better in their own setting, and we can observe how you integrate school-specific policies and curriculum.

If shortlisted, we'll get in touch with the Head of your school to make sure they're happy with the visit and to arrange a date and time that works for everyone.

All candidates will first take part in a practical teaching assessment, including a lesson observation, which forms the initial stage of our selection process.

Based on the outcome of this assessment, the school will determine whether candidates progress to the formal interview stage and the interview may conclude at this stage if the required standard is not demonstrated.

Welcome from the CEO of The Trust – LAAT

Be a part of something bigger...

Dear Candidate

What if every child was unique with intrinsic value? What if every member of staff was unique with intrinsic value? What if every school was unique with intrinsic value? At LAAT we believe that they are.

We're a Church of England trust so we call it being made in the image of God. But you don't have to. You just need to be able to look at our children and young people – however deprived or privileged, however difficult or compliant, whatever their background, or ability, or culture, or gender – and know that what you do, how you teach them, what you give to them, how you relate to them can transform their lives. And then you must have the energy, and passion, and drive, to give them your best.

We don't ask you to do this alone. We'll provide you with the support of a MAT who believes that you too are unique and valuable – valuable for who you really are.

So, is now the time to think hard about what you want and to look at what Greater Lincolnshire and Lincoln Anglican Academy Trust can offer you? A chance to grow your career, professional support and the opportunity to transform lives.

Within fabulous Greater Lincolnshire with its beautiful beaches, woods, Wolds, fields and fens its 2-university city and its access to new and growing technologies. Its reasonable priced houses and home to the Red Arrows.

Is now the time to find out more about us and to join our community of Excellence, Exploration and Encouragement? To change lives with us, for the better .

Jackie Waters-Dewhurst
Chief Executive Officer

About Magdalen Church of England / Methodist Primary School

As a Church of England / Methodist primary school within the Diocese of Lincoln, we seek to develop a caring Christian community through our school vision:

‘Inspired by William Waynflete and John Wesley, we have a vision to be an aspirational school delivering excellence in learning by being creative, inclusive and resilient so that we can all serve in God’s world to the best of our ability.’

“She gave this name to the LORD who spoke to her: “You are the God who sees me,” for she said, “I have now seen the One who sees me.” (Genesis 16.13).
