CLASS TEACHER required for September 2021

Full time, permanent post. Start date 1st September. Salary range: MPR/UPR plus 1 SEN point

Samuel Pepys is a Cambridgeshire area special school for 102 (116 on roll) wonderful pupils aged 3 to 19 years living in St. Neots and the surrounding area. All pupils have an Education, Health and Care Plan to meet their severe and complex needs. Our pupils inspire and teach us a lot and we are committed to ensuring everyone achieves their full potential through fun, innovative, purposeful and engaging learning opportunities. We are pleased to work closely with families, other professionals and have the dedicated support of Governors.

Our curriculum places priority on meeting individual needs and learning what really matters with a focus upon functional life skills. Ofsted (March 2019) judged our school as outstanding in all areas stating, "teaching, learning and assessment are outstanding. Teachers' high expectations enable pupils to flourish."

If you are a teacher with recent, relevant experience of planning and delivering outstanding learning for pupils with special educational needs, looking to start your teaching career in special education or with a commitment to developing as a teacher within a specialist environment, we would like to hear from you. You will be a class-based teacher, with approximately ten pupils in your class with support from teaching assistants and could be based in either the Primary or Secondary Department.

Successful applicants can expect to:

- Be part of a friendly and outward looking school with wonderful pupils, supportive families and a strong staff team ethos;
- Be committed to continued professional learning and development and networking opportunities;
- Take part in dynamic and collaborative planning opportunities with like-minded colleagues;
- Engage in innovative multi-disciplinary working, with on-site therapists and regular multi-disciplinary meetings;
- Plan and deliver high quality learning opportunities within a well resourced school and the wider community;
- An engaging curriculum with creative learning themes
- Use new technology to support teaching and learning including iPads in each class, projectors and sound systems in the hall and gym and the latest immersive control technology in our MiLE Room;
- Promote communication and interaction in a whole range of settings including our Literacy Lounge, Forest School, sunken trampoline and outdoor learning areas
- Enjoy a new, enjoyable and rewarding challenge!

Samuel Pepys School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. All appointments are subject to successful pre-employment checks including an enhanced DBS, medical check and references, which will be requested prior to interview. If you are considering applying and would like to talk informally about this exciting opportunity please contact Joanne Hardwick, Head Teacher or Penny Kirkpatrick, Deputy Head via the office@ email.

Please complete and return the application form, with an accompanying letter of application by email by Tuesday 4th May 2021 at 9.00am. Interviews will be held on Friday 7th May 2021.
