Main body of Text:

The Governors and Headteacher at Abingdon Primary School are seeking to appoint an excellent classroom practitioner initially for 1 year, with a potential extension dependent upon pupil numbers. The successful candidate will join our happy, inclusive school serving the South Reddish community, and work as part of our wonderful and inspiring team.

This school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Abingdon Primary's Code of Conduct is 'Respect, Responsibility, Resilience', which we embody around school and we are looking forward to welcoming an enthusiastic and committed teacher into our 'Abingdon Family'. The teacher appointed will be an excellent team player and genuinely want to give our children the very best education. We want someone who is patient, will promote and foster positive relationships around school and to show attention to detail in all aspects of professional practice. The successful candidate will also show dedication and a passion for learning through an excellent subject knowledge of the primary curriculum and a commitment to helping our children progress holistically.

The governing body of this school is an equal opportunities employer. We welcome applications from all those who believe they have suitable experience and qualifications.

Please send completed application forms to headteacher@abingdon.stockport.sch.uk.

We are looking for someone who:

- is an excellent classroom practitioner;
- is an innovative, inspirational teacher;
- is committed to the education and well-being of all the pupils in our school;
- is able to work well as a member of a team;
- is highly motivated with a desire to develop best practice through evidence-based research;
- has a passion for teaching and learning, demonstrated through progress;
- demonstrates that they are full of enthusiasm, imagination, creativity and initiative;

- is a reflective practitioner with high aspirations for all pupils;
- is skilled in effective classroom management;
- understands the importance of parental and community involvement;
- possesses good organisation and communication skills;
- is keen to provide enrichment activities.

We can offer you:

- friendly and dedicated colleagues – we love our team!
- Monthly Munch – free breakfast for all staff;
- an innovative and supportive working environment;
- caring and motivated children;
- excellent CPD opportunities;
- a modern and forward-thinking learning environment;
- supportive staff, parents, leadership team and governors;
- opportunities for collaborative learning;
- an inclusive school.

Shortlisted candidates will be contacted with further details as some preparation will be required prior to interview.

The application forms and an information pack are available to download from here. Completed forms should be returned to the school via the above email address or posted to the school address above.

The successful applicant's appointment will be subject to satisfactory pre-employment clearances including a Disclosure and Barring Service check.
