

Small school, big ambitions

Class Teacher

Mainscale (Temporary for 1 year) NOR 136

To commence in post September 2023

Bradfield Dungworth is a primary school for 4-11 age group, serving a large rural community, located just 6 miles from the centre of Sheffield. It is well regarded in the City and is part of Peak Edge, a Primary Phase Academy Trust.

Our school is a “good” school with many “outstanding features” as evidenced by the latest Ofsted February 2016.

‘Pupils’ personal development, behaviour and welfare are at the heart of everyday school life.’

‘Leaders have successfully developed the curriculum so that it provides interesting, stimulating and challenging experiences and opportunities for pupils.’

‘Pupils have huge pride in their school and ... the school community prides itself in being like a family’

We are looking for an excellent teacher who:

- Can inspire, motivate and make learning fun
- Has excellent communication skills to engage effectively with pupils, parents and carers, governors, staff and the wider community
- Has a philosophy and passion to capture imaginations and build a sense of curiosity and love of learning
- Shows commitment to the enrichment of the curriculum and collaboration with the local community
- Is a great team player who can work closely with fellow staff, senior leadership and children across the school and across the Trust

We can offer you

- Enthusiastic, confident and courteous children keen to do well who work and play together across the year groups
- A highly motivated and dedicated staff team
- A committed, active and supportive Governing Board and Parent Friends Association
- Active and engaged parents and carers
- A school with strong community ties
- A committed Family of Schools within our Academy Trust with many opportunities for partnership working and joint CPD
- Opportunities to grow and be promoted across Peak Edge Trust

Applications are welcomed from ECTs and more experienced colleagues. Please state which key stage or phase you would prefer.
