- To implement and keep records on multi-element plans (MEPs) and liaise effectively with outside agencies.
- To understand how children develop and know how to make effective personalised provision for pupils.
- To develop in pupils a positive attitude towards themselves and others and actively promote the school aims and objectives.

Monitoring, Assessment, Recording and Reporting:

- To be responsible for the process of identification, assessment, recording and reporting for the allocated group of pupils.
- To use reports and other sources of external information to provide learners with accurate and constructive feedback on their strengths, weaknesses and areas for development.
- To use a range of observations, assessment, monitoring and recording strategies as a basis for setting challenging learning objectives and raise levels of attainment.
- To communicate effectively with parents and carers about attainment, objectives, progress and well-being, and encourage their participation in the communication process.
- To assess pupils' work systematically and use the results to inform future planning, teaching and curricular development.

Curriculum Knowledge and Understanding:

- To have a secure knowledge of the statutory framework for the National Curriculum and Age-Related Expectations.
- To have a good knowledge of any other statutory requirements related to pupil's education or welfare.
- To keep up to date with research and developments in pedagogy and curriculum content.
- To support the ongoing developments in reading, writing, speaking and listening, maths and computing skills, as well as the wider curriculum across the school.

Professional Standards and Developments:

- To maintain an up to date knowledge and understanding of the professional duties of teachers and the statutory framework within which they work.
- To contribute to the development, implementation and evaluation of policies and practice, including those designed to promote equality and opportunity and those policies which relate to Health and Safety.
- To establish a purposeful and safe learning environment which complies with current legal requirements, national policies and guidance on the safeguarding and well-being of children.
- To work as a team member and identify opportunities for working with colleagues, managing their work where appropriate and sharing the development of effective practice.
- To establish effective working relationships with outside agencies and colleagues within school, especially those who have specific responsibilities for learners with specific needs.
- To assist the promotion of the school aims and objectives in and around the school (in line with the school's behaviour policy) and set a good example in personal conduct and appearance.
- To participate in CPD and staff meetings as required.

Continuing Professional Development - Personal:

- In conjunction with the appraisal team leader, to evaluate performance and improve practice through appropriate professional development and relevant training and development opportunities.
- To take a creative and constructive response to innovation, coaching and mentoring, and adapt practice where benefits and improvements are identified.
- To review the effectiveness of teaching practice and the impact of feedback upon the progress of learners.
- To contribute to the professional development of colleagues.
- To undertake a range of CPD activities as required and maintain a personal portfolio of this.

Pastoral Duties:

- To know the current legal requirements, national policies and guidance on the safeguarding and the promotion of the well-being of children and young people.
- To monitor the social progress of pupils, including progress in PSHE lessons.
- To support the progress of pupils through the target setting process as applied to both academic and behavioural progress.

General:

- To participate in local and national initiatives.
- To participate in, and contribute to, staff meetings, INSET and CPD activities.
- To promote the ethos of the school.
- To act in accordance with school policies and procedures and relevant legislation, particularly in relation to safeguarding, behaviour management, confidentiality and health and safety.
- To carry out duties in compliance with the LA's Code of Conduct, including its Equal Opportunities policies.
- To undertake other duties commensurate with Teachers' Standards Career Stage Expectations.

An annual review of this job description and allocation of particular responsibilities will take place as part of the Teacher Appraisal Review.
