Class Teacher

Full Time, Permanent
Full Time Equivalent Salary – MPS/UPS
dependent on experience

Cam Woodfield Junior School is seeking an excellent class teacher to join our hardworking and supportive team.

Start Date – September 2026

We are looking for someone who:

- Has an excellent understanding of teaching and learning and a strong record of success in the classroom.
- Inspires and motivates pupils through engaging teaching and can empower them to make excellent progress.
- Is positive and nurturing and has a good understanding of children with diverse and complex additional needs.
- Can create a positive atmosphere for everyone and build strong relationships with pupils, staff, parents, and the wider community.
- Is flexible, hardworking, and positive.
- Is a well organised, optimistic team player with a good sense of perspective.
- Is highly professional and can demonstrate a drive for their own development.

We can offer:

- Great pupils.
- A positive and supportive staff team.
- Excellent opportunities for professional development.
- Supportive parents and governors who are committed to improving outcomes for every child.
- An outstanding environment.
- A leadership team who will encourage you and support your continued development.
- Access to the opportunities created by being part of a multi-academy trust.

Our school vision is to nurture, support and inspire all our children so that they can thrive in every way. We are a very inclusive school who pride ourselves on our culture and ethos. We have talented and committed staff with a strong team ethic.

This is an exciting time to be joining our school as our Trust, Cotswold Beacon Academy Trust (CBAT), is currently in discussions to merge with one of the largest multi-academy trusts in the country. This potential merger would open up a wide range of professional development and training opportunities for dedicated and ambitious teachers.

If you are looking to work in a school that will develop you, be part of a team that really cares and part of a school on the up - come for a visit to see what we are all about.
