Head Teacher: Mrs Lisa McIntosh

Class Teacher Full time Required for September 2026 MPR/UPR

Deanery CE Primary School is a very successful and friendly two-form entry Church of England primary school with a Nursery. Our pupils and staff work together to ensure everyone feels valued and is supported to achieve and succeed. At the heart of our school is a carefully crafted curriculum, underpinned by strong Christian values and high expectations for all.

We are seeking to appoint an experienced, enthusiastic and versatile teacher who shares our ambition for excellence, demonstrates strong learning behaviours, and is committed to delivering exciting, vibrant lessons that inspire children to reach their full potential.

The successful candidate will:

- Be supportive of, and committed to, the school's Christian ethos and values.
- Be an enthusiastic, reflective and dedicated practitioner.
- Work creatively with our carefully designed curriculum to ensure all children succeed.
- Demonstrate a commitment to sustainability and environmental awareness.
- Be willing to go above and beyond for our children and families.
- Recognise the importance of strong relationships with colleagues, pupils and parents.
- Enjoy working collaboratively as part of a team.
- Be willing to support extra-curricular clubs and sporting events.

We can offer you:

- A school where core Christian values run throughout the curriculum and daily life.
- A well-considered, carefully crafted curriculum.
- Excellent resources and facilities, including:
 - Dedicated PPA space
 - A MUGA with running track
 - A forest school area
 - Extensive outdoor learning spaces
 - A developing environmental area reflecting our commitment to sustainability
- Enthusiastic, hardworking and well-behaved children who are eager to learn.
- A welcoming, friendly and supportive staff team and Governing Body.
- A strong commitment to your professional development and career progression.
- A creative and inclusive environment where innovation is encouraged.
- A subject leadership responsibility, to be negotiated with the successful candidate and dependent upon experience.

If you are passionate about high-quality teaching, sustainability, and making a real difference to children and families, we would be delighted to hear from you.

Closing date: Tuesday 12th May at 12.00pm (midday)
