

Vacancy – Full time Class Teacher

Innsworth Junior School are looking for a member of staff to work within Key Stage 2. The post will start in September 2025 and run until the end of the academic year in the first instance; this could be extended.

We are part of the Innsworth Partnership; a federation of Innsworth Infant and Junior School. Our children come not only from the local area but across the world – you can hear many languages in our playground! Approximately 50% of our children are from serving military families, most of whom are working at Imjin Barracks, home of NATO's ARRC (Allied Rapid Reaction Corps)

We can offer you:

- a supportive and friendly team of colleagues who are committed to the children and each other;
- children from around the world who are positive about their learning;
- a leadership team committed to staff wellbeing and the reduction of workload;
- CPD opportunities with the Innsworth Schools Partnership and beyond;
- opportunities to develop leadership skills;
- an active and supportive governing board who work closely with the school to ensure the best outcomes for the children.

We are looking for teachers who:

- consistently strive to be the best that they can be;
- are flexible and creative;
- able to thrive in an ever-changing context;
- able to motivate and inspire children;
- have good communication skills;
- actively contribute as part of a team.

Visits are welcomed – please contact Mrs Wilmot (01452 730377)

Closing date: Noon Monday 2nd June 2025

Interviews: Friday 6th June

If you would like to join us, application packs are available on the school's website. Completed application forms should be submitted, either by post or email (office@innsworth-jun.gloucs.sch.uk)

Innsworth Schools' Partnership is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of the children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is a requirement for the successful applicant.

Please note that open internet searches will be carried out on all shortlisted applicants.
