Welcome from the Head Teachers

We are very proud to be the Co-Headteachers of such a vibrant and successful village school. When we came to lead the school, we were wowed by the children's self-confidence, behaviour and attitudes to learning. They are the strongest we have ever seen and it is a truly a pleasure to work with them each day.

As a small school, we all become a bit like a family. You will come to know every child and staff member, their strengths, what makes them tick and what they need support with. We are looking for team members who have a can-do attitude, who put children at the heart of every decision they make and as we say on all job adverts a sense of humour!

If you think we might be the right school for you, please do give us a call, we are happy to tell you more about us.

We look forward to receiving your application!
