

Primary Class Teacher (Permanent)

MPS/UPS (Inner London) (Full time)

We would like to appoint an outstanding teacher to join our motivated team. Crown Lane school is a wonderful and diverse community school, where staff are committed to ensuring pupils are given the opportunities, motivation and direction they need to achieve and thrive. We are looking to employ a teacher who shares our values and determination to ensure that Crown Lane pupils receive a first-class education.

Crown Lane is a vibrant, diverse community school on the Streatham-Norwood border. We have a supportive staff and leadership team who are committed to ensuring the best opportunities and outcomes for our children. We have recently developed a partnership with Woodmansterne School creating exciting opportunities for professional development. The Crown Lane Autism Resource Base is an integral part of the whole school, supporting children with a diagnosis of autism and an EHCP. Staff from across the whole school, work together create an excellent and inclusive school community where children are happy, proud of their achievements and excel in their learning.

We are looking for an individual with:

- very high expectations of what can be achieved;
- a proven track record in raising pupil attainment;
- good knowledge of the EYFS and primary curriculum;
- experience of teaching children with SEND and specifically children with ASD;
- an understanding of how children learn and the complexities of this process;
- the skills to work successfully as a team member, establishing effective working relationships and flexible working practices;
- experience of following direction and working in collaboration with colleagues, parents, pupils and the school community;
- strong interpersonal skills;
- a creative and innovative approach to school improvement;

Our strong and experienced leadership team are committed to providing an exceptional and enriching education for all our young people.
