We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and dedicated class teacher to join our welcoming and supportive primary school in the village of Aldbourne.

We are looking for a reflective practitioner with an interest in educational research and an understanding of the importance of building strong foundational knowledge for all pupils. The successful candidate will be committed to delivering high-quality teaching and learning, with a desire to continually develop their practice.

At St Michael's, we embrace "a lifetime love for learning." Our staff team is collaborative, supportive, and committed to continually refining practice to achieve the very best outcomes for all pupils. We implement research-driven initiatives, including Continuous Provision and OPAL, engage with leading educationalists and share our learning with teachers across the UK. Following a recent visit, Tom Sherrington commented: "I do this a lot, and yours is one of the schools where I have seen the most consistently high practice throughout the school."

We are looking for someone who:

- Brings energy and enthusiasm to create engaging and inspiring learning opportunities where all children can thrive
- Works collaboratively, is open to feedback and is committed to their own professional development
- Values the development of the whole child, champions inclusion and fosters a strong sense of belonging
- Actively safeguards children and maintains high expectations of behaviour
- Supports and values our Christian ethos

We welcome applications from both Early Career Teachers (ECTs) and experienced practitioners.

Prospective applicants are warmly encouraged to visit the school by appointment. For an application pack, please contact the school using the details provided.

St Michael's School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All applicants will be subject to a full Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check and an online search prior to appointment.
