We are seeking an inspirational, caring and committed teacher to join our outstanding and happy St Michael's team, within the beautiful village of Aldbourne.

We invite applications from teachers, including ECTs, who:

- enjoy being an active member of a successful team
- will bring energy and enthusiasm to create exciting learning opportunities which allow all children to learn and flourish
- actively safeguard children and have high expectations of behaviour
- support and value our Christian ethos

At St Michael's, our dedicated staff are collaborative, reflective and always striving to discover the best ways to support every child in our care.

We're proud to offer:

- an embedded coaching model for ongoing, high-impact teacher CPD
- a culture rooted in collaboration, support and evidence-informed practice
- innovative approaches including continuous provision and the OPAL play philosophy

We regularly welcome leading educationalists to our school, and share our expertise with schools across the UK. After visiting, Tom Sherrington said:

"I do this a lot and yours is one of the schools where I have seen the most consistently high practice throughout the school."

If you're a forward-thinking teacher who wants to grow in a supportive and ambitious environment, we'd love to hear from you. Prospective applicants are strongly encouraged to visit the school by appointment. For an application pack please contact the school using the contact details above.

St Michael's School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All applicants will be subject to a full Disclosure and Barring Service check and online search before appointment is confirmed.
