Job Description

Responsible to: Headteacher and Governing Body

- To work as a class teacher within the school's policies and guidelines and contribute to their development.
- To promote the aims and support the ethos of the school.
- To be responsible for the effective teaching and learning of the children in your care by providing differentiated work to match their needs.
- To work in partnership with the Speech and Language teachers, Ethnic Minority Achievement teachers, SENCO and all learning support assistants.
- To provide an orderly, attractive and stimulating learning environment.
- To provide appropriate learning situations to enable the children to develop attitudes, skills, concepts and knowledge matched to their age and ability.
- To assess and mark work, record and report on the attainment, development and progress of pupils and moderate standards with the whole school staff.
- To communicate and consult with the parents/guardians of pupils.
- To be responsible for the social, moral, physical and cultural development of the children in your care.
- To maintain good behaviour and an adequate level of supervision.
- To safeguard the health and safety of pupils in your care, both at school and when involved in off-site school activities.
- To plan effectively the work for your class on a long, medium and short-term basis.
- To strive to improve attainment for pupils in your care by undertaking long and short term target setting.
- To regularly present plans and samples of work to the Headteacher for monitoring.
- To attend and contribute to staff meetings, INSET and after-school consultations with parents.
- To promote good relationships with staff, parents, and the school community.
- To create displays that are well presented and clearly labelled (including titles, statements, open-ended questions, which the children, parents and visitors can relate to.)
- To co-ordinate at least one curriculum area.
- To contribute to the school improvement plan.
- To carry out any other professional duties as required by the headteacher.

This Job Description will be reviewed on an annual basis and may be subject to amendment or modification at any time after consultation with the post holder.

Riverside Primary School aims to select on merit, irrespective of race, sex, disability, age or any other protected characteristics.
