

Ruardean Church of England Primary School

Love of learning – Love of life – Love of one another

Person Specification: Class Teacher

- An enthusiasm for children and teaching
- A commitment to striving for quality education
- An ability to manage the range of classroom activities
- An ability to deliver the curriculum in an imaginative and interesting way
- To be able to work in sympathy with the school's Christian ethos
- An ability to deliver high quality teaching and learning, and some understanding of recent research on what makes effective learning
- A sense of humour
- A capacity for self-evaluation and to work in a constructive way with colleagues in order to enhance the quality of teaching and learning
- An ability to express coherently what makes successful learning in terms of their own experience
- A commitment to partnership with parents and an understanding of the importance of that relationship
- An understanding of the role of assessment
- An ability to maintain fair but firm classroom discipline with an emphasis on positive behaviour management
- An understanding of how children learn to read and how this needs to be organised in the classroom
- An understanding of the importance of community links
- The ability to be a valuable member of a team
- Flexibility in terms of joint planning, teaching and working
- An understanding of the needs of SEND children and some knowledge of the range of activities suitable to their learning needs
- A commitment to equal opportunities

School Lane, Ruardean, GL17 9XQ, Tel: 01594 542461

Email: admin@ruardean.gloucs.sch.uk Website: www.ruardeancofprimaryschool.com