classroom teacher?

Somerby Primary School has a fantastic opportunity for an inspirational teacher to join our “small but mighty” school

This role is suitable for full-time or part-time job share applicants and suitable for an ECT.

About our school

Somerby is a close-knit community-based school where children are valued and helped to achieve their best. They are supported and nurtured to become confident and independent people who love to learn and enjoy a challenge. All schools have their own distinctive 'feel' which makes them unique: we think the special feeling you get at Somerby comes from our caring, supportive and family-feel environment we have created.

Somerby is a happy and creative school, and our staff make it their mission to teach exciting, engaging and fun lessons to help children develop a life-long love for learning. I am extremely privileged to be part of such a wonderful school, and proud to work with such committed and passionate staff who want to provide the very best opportunities for the children in our care, as well as looking after their well-being.

We are a dedicated team of professionals who continually strive to improve the children's education whilst giving them strong support and encouragement through their primary education journey.

About the Mowbray Education Trust

The Mowbray Education Trust (MET) is a multi-academy trust currently educating around 2,500 children from the age of 2 to 16 in the town of Melton Mowbray and surrounding villages in the Borough of Melton. The MET currently has one secondary school, five primary schools and one pre-school; with potential numerical and geographical growth in the future.

Melton Mowbray is a rural market town in Leicestershire which is easily commutable from Grantham, Leicester, Loughborough, Nottingham and Oakham.

The MET has a central support services team, with staff managing Estates, Finance, HR, IT and Operations, across our schools. The central team are based at offices within John Ferneley College in Melton Mowbray.
