

Freemantles School Classroom Assistant Person Specification

Freemantles School - What we need in a Classroom Assistant.
Use this information as a guide to what we want to know about you, if you include these things and your experiences of them, we may ask you for an interview.
What we are looking at	What you need	What would make it even better	How we will find out?
Qualifications and Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To be able to read, write and speak English and do basic number work 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any GCSE level qualifications Any other qualifications / training you may have. If you speak another language. 	You need to tell us in your application. We may explore more in the interview.
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Experience of caring for others, children or adults. Any job role that includes caring for children or adults. Awareness of safeguarding 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have worked in a school You have experience of people with Autism Experience of any interventions used for Autism 	You need to tell us in your application. We may explore more in the interview.
Interest	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You do need to be aware that we are a school for children with complex Autism. You need to show us you are really interested in working within our school 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have looked at our website and found out a bit of information to make sure you would like to work here. 	You need to tell us in your application. We may explore more in the interview.
Are you someone who is?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Flexible Able to learn quickly A good team player Able to stay calm when things are getting tricky Open to training Respectful of all others A good communicator Able to maintain confidentiality 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have examples of where you have needed these things in your previous jobs / Life You have completed any training that might be relevant to the job? 	You need to tell us in your application. We may explore more in the interview.

We are a happy and friendly school, who value committed, friendly staff with a good sense of humour, however we do not expect applicants to try and demonstrate their sense of humour in the interview process

Updated: February 2025