Kind regards,

Mrs Becks Hood, Headteacher

Vision and values of Bishop Chavassee Church of England primary school

‘Fulfilling our potential, achieving excellence together.’

At Bishop Chavassee School (BCS) we are dedicated to ensuring every child’s and every adult’s potential is fulfilled, so we may achieve excellence together. Our passion is to build inspiring foundations to support the development of the whole person in a safe, happy, Christian family. This is the key to how we live our lives at BCS.

School vision

At the theological root of Bishop Chavassee Church of England School’s Christian vision is the parable of ‘The Wise and the Foolish Builder.’

“The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock.” (Matthew 7:25)

As a church school we believe that, like the wise man in the parable, those who are guided by the word of God in the bible and Trust in Him can become wise, compassionate and honest; be empowered to weather all storms, help one another flourish and make a difference in the world.

Bishop Chavassee School knows and values every wonderfully and uniquely created child and adult. Guided by our foundation as a Church of England school we establish firm foundations for our children to become resilient, curious, confident, community minded courageous advocates who flourish and thrive. We aim build on and support the development of the whole person in a safe, happy Christian environment.

We aim to inspire all in our school community to fulfil their potential through our high expectations and a broad, creative and inspirational curriculum; rich in opportunity to develop culture capital, have fun and partake in adventures. Everyone will develop an everlasting love of learning.

School core values

Our dedicated, passionate staff, supported by parents, governors and the Tenax Schools Trust are committed to nurturing our community to achieve excellence together in an environment where everyone is wise, Trustworthy and compassionate. We hope that pupils will be guided by our vision and supported in life through understanding the power of our values as they seek to make a positive difference to the world:

Wisdom Compassion Honesty

About Tenax Schools Trust

Excellence together; transformative education for every child.

All Tenax schools have their own unique character and ethos, which is underpinned by our shared Trust vision; to achieve excellence by working together so that all may feel loved and liberated to serve a thriving society.

As a Church of England Trust we are legally and spiritually one body and one family of schools in which all are known, valued and loved. This commits us to providing a transformative education where we work together to ensure every child has the opportunity to excel inside and outside the classroom. We are ambitious for all and work collaboratively to consistently open doors of opportunity.

You can find out more about our Tenax values and vision on our website.

Our schools and hubs

We are a strong and growing family of 7 primary schools, 1 secondary school, Kent Teaching School Hub and an initial teacher training provider, Teach Kent & Sussex. Our Trust includes Church of England and community schools, who are united by a shared ambition for our pupils. We welcome pupils and families from all backgrounds and from all faiths and none.

The Trust's secondary school, Bennett Memorial Diocesan School, is a Department of Education designated teaching school hub working with more than five hundred schools across Kent and neighbouring areas. This allows us to provide high quality professional development to support teachers and school leaders.

In partnership with Ambition Institute, our teaching school hub provides the Early Career Framework and the full suite of National Professional Qualifications (NPQs), for hundreds of teachers in the region. We also have our own initial teacher training provider, Teach Kent & Sussex, which trains teachers in partnership with primary and secondary schools both within the Trust and beyond.

How we develop our staff

As a Trust we are passionate about people development. Our staff are our best resource and as a result our ambition for our pupils requires a genuine commitment to professional development. This includes:

- Access to a range of professional networks, including our Leadership and Inclusion Networks
- Weekly structured professional development and coaching
- Opportunities to lead aspects of work across the Trust
- Opportunities to contribute to the work of the hubs, including ITT and NPQ delivery

Bishop Chavasse Primary School Class Teacher Role Description

Responsible to: Headteacher

Salary Scale: Main Pay Scale

It is important that Teachers are fully aware that they uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school. At Bishop Chavasse Church of England Primary School we explicitly adhere to core Christian values. Particularly we actively promote the school values of giving our best, resilience, caring for each other and integrity.

General duties:

The education and welfare of a designated class in accordance with the requirements and conditions of the most recent School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document and the Professional Standards for Teachers; having due regard to the requirements of the National Curriculum, the school's aims, objectives and schemes of work, any policies of the governing body. To share in the corporate responsibility for the wellbeing and behaviour of all pupils.

Specific responsibilities:

Child Protection and safeguarding the welfare of our pupils are the responsibility of all staff in this school. In addition, Class Teachers will:

- Be responsible for the leadership and management of designated curriculum area throughout the school.
- Actively contribute to the creation and implementation of the School Plan, informing the SLT of the areas of strength and development for your subject through regularly reviewed action plan and staff meetings.

This job description may be amended at any time after discussion with you to reflect and anticipate needs in the school, the professional development of staff and changes in the post commensurate with salary and title.

Job Specification

You are required to carry out the duties of a school teacher as outlined in the most recent School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document, issued by the DFE and the Professional Standards for Teachers.

Teaching and Learning

The post requires you to teach all areas of the curriculum to pupils to a good or better standard.

- To establish a safe, organised and stimulating environment with displays that foster curiosity, enhanced learning and celebrate pupils' achievements.
- To plan engaging and motivating lessons and achieve progression in pupils' learning through identifying clear objectives, success criteria and next steps. Lesson content will be differentiated to meet the needs of all pupils and ensure active participation which engenders a deep love of learning.
- To promote equality and inclusion in teaching by making effective personalised provision for all; including those for whom English is an additional language, have special or additional educational needs (including Gifted or Talented), or a disability, taking into account all vulnerable groups identified by the school.
- To plan, set and assess homework in accordance with the School Homework Policy.
- To actively engage with and promote positive working relationships with all members of staff, enhancing the strong peer support structure which is deeply established within the school community. This will include high levels of engagement with internal (and external) coaching and mentoring programmes.
- To work positively with others to plan and co-ordinate planning and activities in order to ensure transition between year groups is smooth and receiving staff are given all necessary information.
- To make referrals to other staff as appropriate.
- Lessons will be judged to be consistently good or better in line with the school's basic expectations.

Recording and Assessment

- To be responsible for the attainment and progress of a class of pupils.
- To make effective use of formative, diagnostic and summative assessments and use these as a tool for raising pupil performance and overcoming barriers to learning.
- Set clear targets for pupils' learning, building on prior attainment, and ensuring pupils are aware of their own learning.
- To support and guide learners so they can reflect on their learning, identify the progress they have made, set positive targets for improvement and become successful independent learners; to mark work in accordance with the school's Marking Policy and code to facilitate pupil improvement.
- To communicate effectively with parents, other stakeholders and outside agencies when required.

Leadership and Management

- All teachers are Leaders and Managers of Learning, both within and without their classroom environment.
- To prepare, develop and review the designated curriculum area Policy for which you have responsibility in consultation with the Headteacher and staff.
- Lead staff in the development of schemes of work for designated curriculum area throughout the school closely related to the requirements of the National Curriculum and in the development of our 'Curriculum'.

- To secure commitment of staff by acting as a consultant, adviser and in-service organiser, sharing knowledge and ideas as well as showing by personal example how the designated curriculum area can be used to exploit opportunities to develop pupils' personal, spiritual, moral, social and cultural development.
- To keep up to date with research, teaching methods and resources available by liaising with outside agencies, in service courses, visits, personal study, cluster and network meetings; reporting and discussing with other staff.
- To identify areas of strength and create an action plan which identifies areas for improvement, linked with the School Improvement Priorities, and be proactive in its implementation.
- To be involved in target setting and to monitor and report on standards achieved in your subject areas.
- To make recommendations regarding the ordering of resources and to manage the budget delegated to these curriculum areas.
- To provide parental interest and understanding of the teaching of the designated curriculum area across the curriculum by newsletter, website information, notice board/display or parents' workshop.

Standards and Quality Assurance

- To support the aims, ethos and policies of the school.
- To work as part of a team to raise standards and progress and ensure that the education we provide is of the highest quality.
- To know the current legal requirements, national and school policies and guidance on the safeguarding and promotion of well-being of children.
- Promote fair and consistent discipline in line with the school policy.
- To keep up to date with the philosophy, teaching methods, changes and developments in the structure of the curriculum.
- To review own teaching and impact on learners progress, attainment and wellbeing, refining approaches where necessary and being committed to coaching and mentoring support.
- To participate in staff meetings and be a positive role model to others.
- To be punctual and smartly dressed.
- To respect the confidentiality of records and information regarding pupils, parents and other stakeholders.
- To liaise with outside agencies, attend relevant courses and actively seek ways of benefiting from collaboration.

Ex-Curricular Responsibilities

- To take part in the wider life of the school, including extending learning through out of school contexts, the running of a subject specialist club, attending some PTFA events, or by exploiting an area of personal interest. This may be seasonal or for the duration of one term.
- Liaise with colleagues and other stakeholders in a flexible and professional manner

Curriculum areas and responsibilities

It is understood that areas of responsibility are from time to time subject to review and are negotiable in the light of the needs of the school and the professional development of the staff.

Each holder of a post of responsibility should ensure by consultation that their area of responsibility receives adequate consideration during the course of the year.

Since there is considerable overlap in the areas of responsibilities, it is expected that each person with specific responsibility can look to other members of staff for support and advice in the carrying out of that responsibility.

There is an expectation that all staff will support and maintain whole school achievements and awards.

This job description may be reviewed at the end of the academic year or earlier if necessary. In addition, it may be amended at any time after consultation with the post holder.

Guidance Notes for Applicants

Applications

Please submit your application by midday on Monday 6th October. Candidates will be invited to interviews in the week beginning 13th October 2025.

We encourage you to attend a visit of our school before you apply. Any applicants who would appreciate an informal discussion with the Headteacher, Mrs Becks Hood, should email to book a mutually convenient time for a school tour or conversation. Please contact recruitment@bishopchavassschool.org.uk or telephone 01732 676040.

Start date

This post is offered to start on 27th October 2025.

Application Form

It is imperative that the application form is completed in full and where possible, electronically signed. As you will be submitting your application form electronically, you will also be asked to sign the form should you be invited to interview. Submission of an electronic application, whether signed or unsigned, will be considered to be a declaration that the form is complete and accurate.

Supporting Statement

The application form asks for a statement in support of your application. The selection panel will look to see how well you have focused your application on the school and the Trust's overarching vision and we would strongly encourage you to share with us what drives and motivates you as an individual, particularly in respect of your own teaching experience, and how you would apply this in the context of our school.

In addition, it will be important to relate your skills and knowledge to the person specification with supporting evidence that demonstrates how you meet the range of criteria.

Commitment to equality of opportunity

The Tenax Schools Trust and its schools are committed to creating inclusive teams that represent a breadth of backgrounds, perspectives, and skills, and that can provide role models to all pupils in our communities. Our aim is ensure that all who work for us will feel respected and able to give of their best. If you think you meet the essential criteria for one of our roles, we would love to hear from you irrespective of sex, age, disability status, ethnicity, gender, religion or sexuality.

Where possible, we seek to facilitate flexible working opportunities.

We are happy to make reasonable adjustments wherever possible through the recruitment process should this be required.

Fairness in how we recruit and select our employees plays a significant part in creating an equal opportunities environment. Our aim is that every applicant for a position within our schools/Trust is considered against criteria which relates only to the requirements of the job. To that end, we are committed to providing equality and fairness for all.

Referees

As part of our commitment to Safer Recruitment practices we will take up references on shortlisted candidates. Please give your current or most recent employer as one of your referees.

We ask that you do not include photocopies of open testimonials. We will always write to your current or previous employer for a professional judgement of your suitability for the post, and will always ask employers to comment on an applicant's suitability to work with children. If you have been employed in your present school for less than three years, the governing body may wish to seek further supporting information from your previous employer(s).

Qualifications

If you are invited to interview you will be asked to bring documentary evidence of your Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) and other relevant qualifications.

The selection panel will ask to see the original certificate, and copies will be taken for your application. If you have achieved any other professional qualifications e.g. SEN qualifications, please bring copies of these certificates to the interview.

Medical Information and Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Disclosure

Prior to appointment, you will need to complete a health statement that will be assessed by Tenax Schools Trust's Occupational Health Team.

The Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All staff will be expected to hold or be willing to obtain an enhanced DBS disclosure issued with the Trust as the employer. This disclosure will need to be approved by Tenax Schools Trust before we can fully confirm your appointment. Please note that having a criminal record does not automatically mean that an offer of appointment will be withdrawn.

Childcare Disqualification Regulations 2009

Teachers working regularly with pupils in Year R are covered by the Childcare Disqualification Regulations 2009. The school will need to ensure that they are not knowingly employing a person who is disqualified under the 2009 Regulations in connection with relevant childcare provision. Accordingly, the successful candidate may be required to demonstrate to the school, by completing a self-declaration form as part of the pre-employment checks process, that they have not been disqualified under the 2009 Regulations.

If the preferred candidate is found to be disqualified under the 2009 Regulations, the offer of employment may be subject to the application by the preferred candidate to Ofsted for a waiver and the receipt of a waiver from Ofsted. Full guidance from the Department for Education about the Childcare Disqualification Regulations, the posts to which the regulations apply, and the criteria for disqualification can be found at:
