If you are passionate about teaching, we would love you to apply to work in our forward-thinking and supportive school. Whether you cannot wait to meet your first class or you are seeking new adventures, we have lots to offer! We believe in quality CPD and investing in our staff team.

We are excited to receive applications from aspirational and innovative teachers who can ensure:

- All children are challenged and inspired to achieve.
- The positive wellbeing and inclusion of all learners.
- Initiative and engagement in continued professional development.
- Through supportive collaboration and coaching, your teaching goes from strength to strength.

We are proud to offer:

- Children who are excited to learn and will amaze you every day.
- A commitment to your wellbeing in the ever changing world of education.
- Supportive coaching, mentoring and team-working.
- Reflections on practice with a good helping of humour in all staff meetings.
- Successful career progression through the school and trust wide.
- Joining an Attachment, Trauma and Neuro – diversity Aware school.

You will be working at Mildmay Infant & Nursery School which is a member of Bridge Academy Trust, who provide high quality professional development and collaboration opportunities for our teachers and subject leaders. One year maternity contract and potential permanent contract available.

‘Mildmay Infant & Nursery School is a fabulous learning community that is passionate about creating exciting, inspirational teachers for the children of both today and tomorrow.’ (Will Ryan: Inspirational Teachers, Inspirational Learners.)
