

Class teacher

Inner London Main Pay Scale

Fixed Term 1 Year

We would like to appoint an outstanding teacher to join our motivated team. Crown Lane school is a wonderful and diverse community school, where staff are committed to ensuring pupils are given the opportunities, motivation and direction they need to achieve and thrive. We are looking to employ a teacher who shares our values and determination to ensure that Crown Lane pupils receive a first-class education.

Crown Lane is a vibrant, diverse community school on the Streatham-Norwood border. We have a supportive staff and leadership team who are committed to ensuring the best opportunities and outcomes for our children. We have a partnership with Woodmansterne School, creating exciting opportunities for professional development.

We are looking for an individual with:

- very high expectations of what can be achieved;
- a proven track record in raising pupil attainment;
- good knowledge of the EYFS and primary curriculum;
- experience of teaching children with SEND (in mainstream classroom or specialist provision); and specifically, children with ASD
- an understanding of how children learn and the complexities of this process;
- the skills to work collaboratively with colleagues and as an effective team leader, establishing effective working relationships and flexible working practices;
- experience of following direction and working in collaboration with colleagues, parents, pupils and the school community;
- strong interpersonal skills.

Our strong and experienced leadership team are committed to providing an exceptional and enriching education for all our young people.
