About Kirk Hallam Community Academy

Kirk Hallam Community Academy is a medium-sized 11-18 academy, situated in the Erewash area of Derbyshire. Our students are drawn from both rural and urban areas. The academy admits students into Year 7 from 15 local primary schools.

Culture

At Kirk Hallam, we have high expectations of all our students and we are a truly ambitious learning community. To be the best we can be, we take responsibility for the behaviours outlined in our 'Culture Code'. This initiative brings together our whole school vision, our common mission, the development of character, and provides absolute clarity of expectations.

We truly believe that an empowering and positive culture across our school is the key to its continued improvement. This all begins with taking responsibility, communicating positively, working hard and being kind.

We continue to raise our standards and the expectations of all students to ensure that they are equipped with the necessary character skills to be positive members of society, enabling them to enter the work force as employable and successful individuals.

These character traits are:

- Respectful — we expect our students to speak to staff and each other with respect.
- Kindness — we expect our students to be kind to themselves and each other.
- Communication — we expect our students to speak in a calm, polite manner, both in and out of the classroom and around the academy.
- Responsibility — we all make mistakes, but we expect our students to take responsibility for their actions and accept the consequences/sanction.
- Tenacity — having a can-do attitude to challenges.

Character cards are used to reward positive (and negative) behaviours when they are seen. Adults at Kirk Hallam show respect to our students through their high expectations, fairness and consistency.

Vision and values

At Kirk Hallam Community Academy, we firmly believe that transformational learning experiences change lives. Our motto 'Work Hard, Be Kind' underpins everything that we do and reflects our unwavering commitment to excellence.

We are unashamedly ambitious for all our students and believe that the development of the whole child is critical for their future success. A student's strength of character goes hand-in-hand with academic achievement and we believe that learning should be a transformational experience for every child.

The word 'community' is deeply important to us, and our community ethos is what makes the school a special place to be.

High aspirations, secure and trusting relationships and strong traditional ensure that all our students can thrive in a culture of kindness.

Pastoral

Kirk Hallam's pastoral system is based upon a year group structure, providing pupils with a focussed programme of activities relevant to their position on their journey through the secondary curriculum.

One of the most important threads of our pastoral programme is the information, advice and guidance given to pupils regarding their futures.

The progress and well-being of each cohort is overseen by a Head of Year and their team of tutors. These staff provide consistent daily mentorship through tutor time, assemblies, and other personal development activities.

We believe that it is crucial to inspire a sense of purpose in all of our pupils, regardless of whether that purpose will lead pupils down an academic or vocational pathway.

Enrichment

Crucial to every child's development is the wide range of enrichment opportunities that are offered across the school. We are committed to offering a wide range of cultural experiences for our students, which includes the development of our on-site farm.

Enrichment opportunities range from foreign residentials to educational day trips within the UK. Students have opportunity to be involved in our outdoor education programme including a visit to Lea Green Outdoor Education Centre and participating in the Duke of Edinburgh Award.

Within the curriculum, trips are offered including industrial visits with the D&T department, theatre performances with the English department and academy music and drama productions.

Other extra-curricular opportunities include after school creative arts clubs and a wide range of sporting clubs.

Welcome from the CEO

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in working at the heart of Nova Education Trust. I hope that you will find this pack useful and informative in helping you to find out more about our organisation and to complete your application.

Since 2011, Nova Education Trust has successfully supported schools of all phases to secure improved educational standards. Over the last few years, our organisation has undergone a significant transformation and is unrecognisable culturally, educationally, financially and in governance terms from the organisation it was pre-2021.

Educationally, we go from strength to strength. 94% of our academies are now judged by Ofsted as Good or Outstanding, compared to 47% that weren't when they joined us. Nova's KS2 SATs performance is strong whilst Progress 8 and 5+ EM across all of the schools is currently ranked as one of the highest in the region. We are highly valued and respected by the DfE, the Local Authorities and other local trusts. This is testament to our brilliant pupils, staff and the communities that we serve. Our trust support and governance is strong and has been externally recognised as amongst the best in the sector and our organisation is financially stable. We understand and we believe that schools belong to their communities — the mission is the same, but the vision may look different in our range of contexts and settings.

We are committed to our vision, values, ambitions and principles, and we are determined to achieve our mission of creating transformational schools. We are looking for a talented and inspirational leader who is committed to transforming the lives of our learners, with the imagination, passion and experience to support and challenge us to even greater things in the service of our young people.

Nova Education Trust is an organisation that trusts and empowers its staff. Front and centre to this is our commitment to well-being and engagement because we believe in enabling people to be at their best. We are changing the way we support people to grow and develop, through 'coaching, not telling' — we now have over 150 professionally-trained coaches in the organisation and we have plans to train all middle and senior leaders. We think it's essential that colleagues can access excellent professional development and progression pathways which suit their individual needs. We pledge to lead the way with Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in our organisation. We will introduce new and innovative ways to increase the diversity of our workforce and continue to strive for an inclusive culture in which people have a voice and can contribute, feel a sense of belonging and are able to be themselves.

It is such a pleasure and privilege to lead such a talented group of staff who are forever looking for new and innovative ways to make us even better, each and every day. I am so proud of what we have achieved so far but I know that we can do even better, despite the challenging educational landscape that we find ourselves in. We have a highly skilled, experienced, dynamic and diverse board. They are so supportive yet professionally challenging and there is a great synergy and trust between the board and the executive team.

If you have got a sense of humour, drive, energy and enthusiasm to make us even better then we'd love to hear from you. This is a fantastic opportunity to join a values-driven trust at an exciting stage in our development.
