Penn Wood School is seeking to appoint a person experienced at school business management (ideal) or who has highly relevant finance and resources management experience (essential). The successful candidate will partnership work with our current highly qualified and experienced School Business Manager (currently 0.6). You will join our team as a member of our SLT and have experience of working in an educational environment. You will lead jointly on all aspects of finance and school administration but will have specific responsibilities within finance and other areas such as HR recruitment processes and induction, premises, Sports Premium funding, Health and Safety and data protection.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and you will be subject to an enhanced DBS check.

An application pack is available on our website <http://www.pennwood.slough.sch.uk>

Please send completed forms to enquiries@pennwood.slough.sch.uk

Please call the school on 01753 521811 or send an email to arrange an exploratory conversation if that would be helpful

Interviews will commence upon receipt of suitable applications. If you have not heard from the school for four weeks after submitting an application, please assume that you have not been shortlisted.
