

A fantastic opportunity to join the thriving Computer Science department at the London Academy of Excellence Tottenham – the Sunday Times 'State Sixth Form College of the Year 2020-21'.

LAE Tottenham opened in September 2017 and has more than 600 students on roll as of September 2022. It is an academically selective 16-19 free school harnessing the support of nine independent schools to offer unrivaled educational opportunities to the most ambitious and motivated 16-19 year olds from Haringey and beyond.

The successful applicant will have exceptional subject knowledge and work within the Computer Science department to inspire aspirational and motivated students and support them to achieve outstanding outcomes.

This role may be suitable for an ECT, or a teacher looking to build their A Level experience in Computer Science and keen to work with motivated and academic students. Unqualified teachers with passion and subject expertise are also encouraged to apply.

Pay is dependent on experience, using the LAE Tottenham pay scale.

This is a full-time / part time position.

Start date - Autumn Term 2023.

LAE Tottenham
