

Cover Teacher & Forest School Lead

Salary Approx £22,847 pro rata

(Unqualified Teacher)

Start Date - February 2022

We have a new exciting role starting in February 2022 at Kaizen. We are looking for someone for a split role of Forest School Lead and cover teacher across the school. If you have some knowledge of Forest School and wish to be supported in developing as a teacher, this may be the role for you!

Kaizen is an outstanding school. Children are happy and love actively learning. Our school is really important to the children and they leave with the resilience and motivation to continue their successful learning. We are proud of our school and excited by what we can achieve. We have an amazing Forest School that is integral to our curriculum.

We provide:

- High quality induction
- Excellent tailored professional development opportunities which enables staff to develop their own practice and impact others nationally
- A highly engaged staff who work hard together and thrive in a happy, friendly environment.

We are looking for teachers who:

- Can make a difference to outcomes for children
- Demonstrate good organisational and communication skills
- Value playing in a team and are able to build strong professional relationships
- Are excited by professional development.

Eko Trust family

The school is part of Eko Trust family of schools, which has seven schools across East London and Suffolk. As part of a high achieving multi academy trust, we offer a high quality personalised approach to developing all staff through coaching, mentoring and both internal and external training. We also provide financial support and safeguard time for staff development. Staff wellbeing is instrumental to our success and that's why we provide non-contractual benefits such as the Schools Advisory Service, who offer confidential wellbeing and medical support. We are also part of the Cycle to Work Scheme.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff to share this commitment and to undergo appropriate checks, including DBS. Kaizen Primary School supports Equal Opportunities Employment.

Please contact Lorraine Campbell to arrange a visit to the school.
