Welcome

Dear Applicant,

I am delighted that you are interested in becoming part of the team at The Turing School.

The Turing School is a proudly comprehensive and fully inclusive school of approximately 780 students.

There is a consistent approach to lesson planning, teaching and marking at the school and an explicit focus on differentiation and quality of work in books. At the heart of our vision for the school is a relentless drive to ensure that all pupils make good progress in every subject. Our curriculum is broad and balanced, offering courses to suit pupils of all abilities.

At The Turing School we are committed to securing excellence in learning and progress for all students through exciting and stimulating teaching, and a rich curriculum which encourages a love of learning. We want all students to have high expectations of themselves and to develop as enthusiastic, creative and positive young people who display good personal, social, emotional and spiritual development. At The Turing School, we know all of our pupils and take the time to support and guide them towards targets and goals that are realistic and personalised.

We promote self confidence and belief, supporting students to face the challenges future life brings, alongside an awareness and understanding of the values of our society and other cultures. We seek to celebrate our pupils' talents and skills at every opportunity and are proud of what we achieve together as a school community. To achieve our vision, we place the recruitment, retention and professional development of excellent teachers as a top priority.

Our modern, well equipped building has excellent facilities offering an inspiring modern learning environment, with well resourced classroom spaces. The Turing School is part of a multi-academy trust focused on school improvement, collaboration and continuous learning.

The Turing School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All posts are subject to an enhanced DBS check. As a school dedicated to the principle of equal opportunities, we aim to ensure that staff recruitment is fair and open to all regardless of age, social class, disability, religion, ethnic origin or sexual orientation within the context of a detailed person specification.

Kind regards

Sarah Doyle

Job Description

Job Title:	Head of PSHE
Grade:	MPS/UPS + TLR2B
Responsible to:	Headteacher

Purpose of the job:

The current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document describes the general professional duties which teachers are expected to undertake in the course of their employment.

Teachers are also expected to perform particular duties as may reasonably be assigned to them by the Headteacher.

For the purpose of this general job description these particular duties are:

Curriculum:

- To plan and prepare courses.
- To continuously review teaching methods, schemes of work and resources as necessary.
- To advise and co-operate with the line-manager, other teachers and the Senior Leadership Team on the preparation and development of courses of study, teaching materials and resources, teaching programmes, methods of teaching, assessment and pastoral arrangements.
- To participate in meetings of the school which relate to the curriculum for the school or the administration or organisation of the school, including pastoral arrangements.
- To take part as required in the review, development and management of activities relating to the curriculum, organisation and pastoral functions of the school.

Professional Development etc:

- To participate in any arrangement within an agreed national framework for the performance management of performance and that of other teachers.
- To participate in arrangements for further training and professional development as a teacher.
- To contribute as appropriate to the selection for appointment and professional development of other teachers and support staff, including the induction and assessment of new and newly qualified teachers.
- To co-ordinate or manage the work of other teachers as appropriate.
- To manage or supervise support staff as necessary.

Pupils:

- To plan and prepare lessons.
- To teach pupils assigned, including setting and prompt marking of work carried out by pupils in school or elsewhere.
- To set relevant and sufficient homework, according to the homework timetable, and to ensure prompt marking of the homework or coursework.
- To assess, record and report on the development, progress and attainment of pupils, according to departmental and whole-school policies.

Job Description

- To participate in the arrangements for preparing pupils for public examinations. To assess pupils for the examinations and record and report these assessments.
- To promote the general progress and wellbeing of individual pupils and of any class or group assigned.
- To provide guidance and advice to pupils on educational and social matters and on their future education and careers, including information about the sources of more expert advice on specific questions.
- To make records of, and reports on, the personal and social needs of pupils.
- To provide or contribute to oral and written assessments, reports and references relating to individual pupils and / or groups of pupils.
- To maintain good order and discipline among pupils and to safeguard their health and safety both when they are authorised to be on the school premises and when they are engaged in authorised school activities elsewhere.
- To attend assemblies and to supervise tutor groups while in assembly, unless the teacher wishes to opt out of any religious aspect of assembly where this is against their beliefs.
- To accurately register pupils at a.m. and p.m. registration and during lessons and at any other time necessary before, during or after school.
- To provide, as a Tutor, the individual contact, knowledge and support for pupils within the allocated tutor group and to liaise with parents and other staff accordingly, as appropriate.
- To contribute to the personal and social education of pupils generally and specifically through the teaching of the PSE programme to the tutor group.
- To support all colleagues in ensuring that high standards of uniform and behaviour are maintained within the school.
- To work with other colleagues to ensure that there is a consistent approach in ensuring pupils abide by the school's code of conduct and the same consistency in dealing with pupils who do not conform to school rules.
- To make relevant records and reports as necessary.

Parents and the wider community:

- To communicate and consult with the parents of pupils when required.
- To communicate and co-operate with other persons and outside agencies as required.
- To participate in meetings arranged for any of the purposes described above.
- To foster good relationships with parents.

Resources and Accommodation:

- To take responsibility for the care of resources, accommodation and fabric of the school, particularly when pupils are present.
- To allocate, as appropriate, equipment and materials in connection with his/her teaching.

Policies and Staff Handbook:

- To ensure that all departmental and school policies are understood and complied with.
- To ensure that they have read and understands the contents of the Staff handbook and complies with all the requirements detailed in the handbook.

Job Description

Administration:

- To participate in administrative and organisational tasks related to the above duties.

Health and Safety:

- To accept responsibility for own safety – as well as that of the pupils and colleagues with whom you work.
- To undertake Health and Safety training offered.
- To be aware of Health and Safety issues and the hazards associated with manual handling tasks, including the cumulative effect of repeated manual handling operations.
- To follow any control measures and care plans required by the generic or individual risk assessments.
- To be familiar with and use available equipment safely.
- To be aware of own limitations and inform your employer of any circumstances that may alter your ability to perform manual handling tasks.
- To report accidents and hazards.
- To report deficiencies in the employer's Health and Safety protection arrangements.

TLR responsibilities

Head of Department

In addition to the requirements of a class teacher and any other agreed responsibilities:

- Lead, manage and develop the team teachers
- Role model outstanding classroom practice.
- To be accountable for the results of the RE and Philosophy department and to support, hold accountable, develop and lead the team.
- To work with subject teachers to develop their classroom organisation and teaching methods, including providing regular feedback for their team in a way which recognises good practice and supports their progress against performance management objectives.
- Provide and facilitate professional development of colleagues.
- To ensure high quality teaching resources are developed and consistently used across the subject area.
- To identify areas for improvement within the department.
- To support, facilitate and monitor the progress of the department including maintaining development plans to ensure they make a significant contribution to the School Improvement Plan.
- Use data and other information to inform strategic planning, to identify improvement targets, and to inform the School's leadership.
- Develop and implement policies and practices for the subject that reflects the School's commitment to high achievement.
- Evaluate the effects of the department's work on standards of learning and teaching.
- Identify areas of development for the provision of innovative literacy for all activities
