

The Aldgate School

The Aldgate School

Headteacher: Miss A Allan

Deputy Headteacher

L11-14 (£60,701 to £66,114)

Start date: September, 2022

We want the very best for our children and families.

We're looking for an inspirational leader to join our team and support our Headteacher to achieve our aim of an exceptional education for every child.

You will be a creative and talented leader with determination to help lead our excellent primary school and Children's Centre to the next stage of its development.

We can offer you the chance to work in a unique Church of England Primary School- the only maintained school in the square mile. We run an integrated Children's Centre on our site so you will have a very special opportunity to develop provision for children aged 3 months to eleven years. Because of our special setting you will have access to unrivalled resources including the wealth of cultural, educational and artistic institutions on our doorstep.

You will have significant experience and knowledge of education and demonstrate a good understanding of how to achieve the best outcomes for all children at EYFS/ KS1 or 2. You'll be an outstanding practitioner with high expectations of all our young people. You will be uncompromising in developing an exceptional provision for every child attending or accessing services from our school.

We will support you to achieve a master's level qualification or other professional development on your path to Headship.

We'd love to talk more with you about this role and we welcome visits to the school at any time.

For further information, please go to: www.thealdgateschool.org. To apply, please download and complete the application form. You should include a personal statement which demonstrates your skills and suitability for the role.

Application deadline: Thursday 19th May 12.00 noon

Interviews: Wednesday 25th May (all day)

We welcome visits to the school. If you wish to discuss the role further with the Headteacher please contact the school office on 0207 283 1147 or email office@thealdgateschool.org

The Aldgate School is committed to safeguarding children; successful candidates will be subject to an enhanced DBS Check.
